Opposed to Tinkering with the Currency—Illness of Gen. Spinner—Redemption of Fractional Currency—Interesting Decision—Appointments—Cherokee Lands—Proclamation—Officers Going to the Army Reunion—Paraguayan Difficulty—First Meeting—Russian Exposition—Canadian Notification.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15, 1869.

OPPOSED TO TINKERING WITH THE CURRENCY.

It is understood that the President considers the present condition of our finances most favorable to a speedy return to specie payments, and in his forthcoming message will urge such a measure upon Congress. He is opposed to all tinkering with the currency, and believes if the present Internal Revenue law be suffered to remain intact, and in another year such a tangible reduction of the public debt will have been effected, as well as enable the Government to safely and materially modify the taxes of all kinds. The resumption of specie payments, the President argues, will prevent fluctuations in gold, and break up the influence of the gold gamblers and save the people from the ruinous effects of an irredeemable currency.

OFFICERS GOING TO THE REUNION.

General Sherman, General Ely, Gen. Parker, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, Assistant Attorney General J. L. Dickey, Second Assistant Postmaster General Giles A. Smith, and Third Assistant Postmaster General Terrell, Gen. Morgan L. Smith, Gen. David Hunter, Gen. Oliver, Prof. Eldridge, Col. J. C. McCoy of Gen. Sherman's staff, Gen. T. Crittenden, and Maj. Gen. Harry Fitch left here this morning for Louisville to attend the Reunion of the Army of the Tennessee, which takes place in that city on Wednesday. At Baltimore the party will be joined by Gen. J. Kirby Smith, Gen. Bingham, and others, and at Harrisburg by the New York delegation, consisting of Gen. McDowell, Gen. Ingalls, Maj. De Gras, and Mr. W. Church. They will go through to Louisville by special train, via. Indianapolis, and return here Friday next.

THE RUSSIAN EXPOSITION.

Ex-President Filmore, Chairman of the Louisville Convention, has appointed Col. Blanton Duncan, of Kentucky, and Robert T. Sanders, of Tennessee, Commissioners to have charge of the details of the preparation for the shipment of specimens of American industry to the Russian Exposition of 1870. The other four Commissioners are to be selected by President Grant. Mr. Fillmore, it will be remembered, was made an additional member and chairman of the Commission by the Convention. Samples of cotton, tobacco, wheat, corn, rice, sugar, hemp, &c., and any of the multiform productions or manufactures of the United States, neatly arranged in packages, with labels, can be sent to No. 361½ Broadway, city of New York, or to either of the gentlemen named. A hundred thousand American specimens are called for, to show the importance and diversity of the productions in our country.

NOTIFICATION BY CANADA.

The Canadian authorities have notified our Government that unless the trade between the two countries is so arranged as to be somewhat reciprocal they will be unable to withstand the pressure from all parts of the Dominion urging them to do away with the system of fishery license, and compelling the American fishermen to remain outside the three mile limits of the shores of Canada, and to establish a duty on foreign coal, so as to give the market of western Canada to Nova Scotia coal, instead of having it supplied, as at present, from Pennsylvania and Ohio, and to place an export duty on pine timber, and on American breadstuffs, a large market for which is now found in Canada under free admission by the present Canadian tariff.

CHEROKEE NEUTRAL LANDS.

The attorney for Mr. Joy, the purchaser of the Cherokee neutral lands, had an interview with the President today for the purpose of presenting certain statements concerning the settlements made by parties on these lands other than the settlers embraced in the treaty stipulations, who, it is claimed, occupy the tracts to which they have no right.

THE PARAGUAYAN DIFFICULTIES.

The House Committee on Foreign Affairs to-day concluded its investigations of the Paraguayan difficulties. It is understood the preponderance of testimony sustained the accounts hitherto received of the cruelty and unjustifiable conduct of Lopez. It is believed, however, two reports will be made upholding opposite conclusions in regard to the matter under investigation.

ILLNESS OF GENERAL SPINNER.

General Spinner, U. S. Treasurer, is quite sick, and his physician, Dr. Bliss, has requested that he be kept very quiet. He has been unwell several days, but had attended to his official duties, and devoted much time to the preparation of his annual report. To-day, however, he is confined to his room.

APPOINTMENTS.

The following appointments are announced: Orrin J. Rose, of Ill., Consul at Acona, Italy; Jas. R. Wheeler, Mass., Consul at Kingston, Jamaica, vice Aaron Gregg, suspended; John C. Robeson, Tenn., Consul at Tangier, Morocco, vice F. A. Matthews, suspended.

INTERNAL REVENUE DECISION.

The Internal Revenue Commissioner decides that special agents of the Post office are to be taxed only on the amount of their salary over $1,000, and not on amount of additional payments to them on account of expenses.

SPECIAL PROCLAMATION.

An official proclamation is to be made of the convention between the United States and Great Britain for the direct exchange of mails between the New Orleans office and the office at the Belize, for Hoduras.

FRACTIONAL CURRENCY REDEEMED.

Redemption of fractional currency for the week ending Saturday were one hundred and thirty millions.

FIRST MEETING.

The New England Society holds its first meeting for the season on Thanksgiving evening.

NASHVILLE.

The Fifteenth Amendment Reported Against.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NASHVILLE, November 15.—In the House to-day the Committee on Federal Relations reported in favor of the rejection of the Fifteenth amendment to the Federal Constitution. The report was made the special order for to-morrow.

The Conference Committee on the Convention bill agreed to compromise by fixing the number of members at seventy-five, the election to take place on the third Saturday in December, and the Convention to meet on the second Monday in January. Both Houses accepted the compromise.

INDIANAPOLIS.

A Re-union a Fizzle—Coal and Iron Ore Discovered.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

INDIANAPOLIS, November 15.—The reunion of the Thirteenth Army Corps today was almost an entire failure, not over fifty persons being present.

Gen. Jno. A. McClernand is here.

Stone coal and iron ore has been discovered in Vermillion county, in this State, by Prof. Cox, State geologist.

—A large free trade meeting was held last night in Huston Hall, Dayton, O. The audience was of the very highest character, representing all the different interests and most of the talent and worth of the city. The meeting was organized by calling Maj. Gen. Thos. J. Wood to the chair. Prof. A. L. Perry, Mass., delivered an interesting address, which was listened to throughout with closest attention.

NEW YORK CITY.

Lottery Swindlers—The Byron Mystery—Erie Strike Again Ended—Liberal Bequests—Railroad Accident—Final Papers—The Drawback Frauds—The Erie-Vanderbilt Quarrel—On Duty—M. E. Missionary Society—Strange Proceeding.

NEW YORK, November 15, 1869.

The investigation of the alleged drawback frauds was continued to-day, the case of Francis E. Howard being under consideration, and Koon, who has given evidence in other cases, testified to Howard's connection with the frauds, and that he exacted ten per cent. for passing the claims. The division of the spoils was as follows: The man who produced the checks, 40 per cent.; Caldwell & Co., 40 per cent.; Blatchford, 10 per cent.; and Howard the balance. The witness had seen Blatchford receive his share. Witness figured up Howard's profits at $250,000. The case was continued till Friday.

The Erie-Vanderbilt quarrel is before Judge Barnard, of the Supreme Court. During the Erie war of last spring, Fisk and Gould repudiated the arrangements under which the fight of 1867 and 1868 was settled, and sought to recover the monies paid out thereunder. Among other suits brought, was one to recover nearly $5,000,000 paid in cash and bonds for shares of the company held by Vanderbilt. The suit was brought on the ground that this arrangement was perfected by a fraudulent conspiracy with the officers of the Erie Company. The relief demanded was special, making the case an equity suit. Arguments were made on the question of a jury trial and a decision reserved.

Assistant Treasurer Folger was on duty to-day, having received his commission and taken the oath of office.

The annual meeting of the General Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church took place to-day, and the election of officers was held, Bishop Morris being chosen President, Rev. Daniel Ferry Recording Secretary, Rev. Thomas Colton Treasurer, Rev. Duke Hitchcock Assistant Treasurer. Disbursements for the year have been $624,779, cash on hand $29,784, of which $125,498 was still due, leaving a balance in the Treasury of $4,376.

It is stated that the investigation of the business of C. H. Murray & Co., McEntyre & O'Brien, and Chester, Simmons & Co., lottery policy dealers in this city, who were recently arrested, has developed the fact that the Government has been defrauded out of nearly $2,000,000 by means of false returns of income.

The remarkable article in the British Quarterly Review on the Byron mystery has been completed by a postscript in which it is asserted that Lady Byron, through her friend, Mr. Wilmot Horton, shortly after the separation, positively disavowed the specific charge against Byron, which, later, Mrs. Stowe asserts with equal positiveness she made.

The Erie strike is believed to be about ended, the engineers having refused to join the brakemen.

General Wool left property valued at $650,000, which will be divided principally between his nephews and nieces. Among his benefactions were $15,000 to the Rensselaer Polytechnic and $3,000 to the Troy Episcopal Orphan Asylum. He added a codicil to his will a few days before his death setting aside $50,000 for a monument to his wife and himself.

An accident occurred Saturday night at the junction of the Freehold & Jamesbury and Camden & Amboy railroads, by which Major H. A. Perine, station master and freight agent at Jamesbury, was killed.

The diplomatic correspondence exchanged between Reverdy Johnson and the governments of the United States and Great Britain, at the close of the negotiations upon the Alabama claims, is published this morning. It adds nothing to what is known on the subject.

It is understood that General Babcock sailed on the Albany with the final papers relative to the annexation of St. Domingo. The iron clads Dictator, Saugus, Miantonomoh and Terror will arrive at St. Domingo simultaneously with the Albany.

The schooner Jno. Atwood, of Provincetown which arrived to-day from Baracoa reports having obtained a proper clearance from the authorities at Baracoa; she got under weight, and while passing the entrance to the harbor was hailed by the sentry who demanded there pass. Without waiting to hear any explanation he fired on us, upon which we sent the men who were towing us ashore for the pass. However the sentry again fired at us, and seriously wounded one of the crew named Henry Edwards. The bullet passed through both thighs. We were obliged to remove him to the hospital at Baracoa.

CHICAGO.

The Winnepeg Difficulty—Government Armory on Rock Island—Election Returns—Dishonest Postmaster, &c.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—The reports about the Winnepeg difficulties seem to be contradictory and ambiguous. A letter, dated Pembina, November, received at St. Paul, says that the opposition organized to the entrance of Governor McDougall into Selkirk was of a determined character, and evidently not a farce, as heretofore reported. McDougall was warned not to enter his dominion. He, therefore, stopped at a British fort on the boundary line and sent one of his party forward to inspect things, who has not yet returned.

The letter states that a large number of people are opposed to their incorporation into Canada, and demand the right to elect their own Legislature, which shall have power to pass laws of a local nature; a homestead and pre-emption laws similar to that of the United States; donations of lands for schools and internal improvements, and the right to make treaties with the Indians.

The first building of the New York Armory works on Rock Island is now completed, and is one most magnificent structures in the west. A large force of workmen are at work on the other buildings on the Island.

Returns from all the counties but two in Missouri make Fairchild's majority for Governor 9,000. Further returns show that G. W. Allen, Democrat, is elected to the Assembly from the Door and Kehawee district over C. L. Harris by 39 majority. The Assembly now stands, Republican 54, Democrats 39, Independent 2.

Cyrus McGowan, Postmaster at Knoxville, Ill., has been arrested for opening a registered letter and pocketing its contents.

Moolje Thackeryjs and Toolsidas Jadavajee, two Hindoo merchants, are at the Sherman House in this city.

Mrs Julia Talman Ingersoll, wife of L. D. Ingersoll, one of the editors of the Chicago Evening Post, died this morning with consumption. She was a lady of fine literary abilities and most estimable in private life.

HUDSON, N. Y.

Terrible Boiler Explosion—The Shakers in Court—Interesting Case.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

HUDSON, N. Y., Nov. 15.—A terrible boiler explosion occurred in Storm's paper mill, at Catskill village, this forenoon. The building was completely demolished, and several lives were lost. It is impossible to tell the full extent of the disaster. It is known that Mrs. Geo. Brandow, wife of the engineer, was instantly killed. The engineer met with instant death and is buried in the ruins. The explosion not only destroyed the mill, but shattered various buildings in the vicinity. The ice houses of Hiram Vansteenburg, adjoining, caught fire and were destroyed.

In the Shaker habeas corpus case of Sarah Ann Barbour, of Newdrop, Staten Island, against the New Lebanon Shakers for alleged illegal restricting of her child, the Court to-day rendered a decision awarding the child to the custody of the mother, and deciding that the Shakers illegally held and restrained her. The right of appeal to the next general term, which meets in Albany on the 6th of December, was granted to the defendant.

The French Emperor Reviews the Troops—Spanish Banquet to Minister Sickles—Emperor of Austria at Port Said—Empress Eugenie Expected—An English Ship Sails for the Suez Canal—Manifesto of the Opposition Members of the Corps Legislatif.

FRANCE.

PARIS, November 15.—The Emperor, who still remains at the Palace at Compeigne, reviewed the troops encamped there yesterday, Sunday. He was greeted with enthusiam by the troops and people.

The manifesto of the opposition members of the Corps Legislatif is published and is signed by twenty-eight deputies. They say the demand by the people of the right to govern themselves means an inevitable transformation, the necessity of which is each day proved more and more imperative. The opposition intend to use peaceful means to that end unless an attempt is made to silence them by force. The manifest indicates the reforms which the opposition will insist upon. They pronounce against the preliminary oath prescribed for members of the corps, and for the abolition of the military law; the country to be armed merely for self defence. The elective principle is the only one which will stand through all revolutions, and must not only be the base of the institutions of the country, but kept clear from monarchial compromises, and the violence of demagogues.

SPAIN.

MADRID, Nov. 15.—Senor Rivero, President of the Constituent Cortes, entertained General Sickles, American Minister, at a banquet last night. The members of the Cabinet, the Deputies to the Cortes, and other distinguished guests were present. Complimentary toasts were exchanged, and the best feeling manifested towards the representative of the United States. The company passed several hours in earnest discussion of the foreign and colonial policy of Spain. From an interchange of views had on this occasion important results are anticipated.

Sale of Bonds—Return of Capt. Shaw from the Wreck of the Stonewall—Meeting to Celebrate the Union of Churches.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

ST. LOUIS, November 15.—The county court to-day sold five thousand shares of Missouri Pacific railroad stock belonging to the county, to Hudson E. Bridge for $250,000 cash.

Capt. Shaw returned from the wreck of the Stonewall to-day, having completed his labors in searching for the dead. Sixty-one bodies have been found. None of the officers were recovered.

The Presbyterians yesterday celebrated the union of the Old and New School Churches, by a joint communion at the Central church in the afternoon and a joint meeting at the Walnut street church in the evening, both of which were largely attended.

CINCINNATI.

Sudden Death—Cause of Cattle Dying—Merchants Exchange—Going to Louisville.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

CINCINNATI, Nov. 15.—Geo. W. Ellis, Secretary of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, died suddenly in the street car, of appoplexy, this afternoon.

The arrival of hogs were larger to-day than any day previous.

John Pfeifer, distiller, asserts that the cattle dying recently at his distillery were poisoned.

N. M. Pike offered his building to the merhants for an exchange for eight hundred and fifty thousand dollars. No action by the merchants.

A large delegation to the reunion of the Army of the Tennessee, go to Louisville to-morrow evening, accompanied by the Newport band.

MEXICO.

Wm. H. Seward the Guest of the Mexican Republic.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, November 15.—A Mexican letter states that extensive preparations have been made in the City of Mexico for the reception of Mr. Seward. Rooms have been assigned for his reception at the National Palace, but in case he should prefer private quarters, suits have been prepared for him in one of the elegant private residences in the capital. A gentleman of distinction has been dispatched by Juarez to meet Mr. Seward and escort him to the city. This is the only instance in which foreigners have been made the guests of the Mexican Republic.

HAVANA.

Seven Cane Fields Burned—Chinese Executed—Taguayeben Captured and Burned—Cholera.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

HAVANA, November 14.—On Thursday seven cane fields, in the vicinity of Los Cruces, were burnt. Since that time four Chinese were discovered in the act of firing another cane field. They were seized and immediately executed.

The settlement of Taguayben, which was defended by thirty volunteers, has been captured by the insurgents and burnt.

The cholera still prevails in the jurisdiction of Remedosia.

Georgia State Fair.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

MACON, November 15.—The city is crowded, and trains are arriving from all directions unable to properly accommodate the people. The fair building and grounds are stocked with articles for exhibition, but all is in confusion. The extra train, with thirty distinguished visitors on board, arrived at noon.

SAN FRANCISCO.

Further Particulars of the Railroad Disaster.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette)

SAN FRANCISCO, November 15.—The United States and District Courts to-day adjourned in respect to the memory of Judge Baldwin, killed by the railroad collision yesterday.

The cause of yesterday's railroad disaster is ascribed to the negligence of the switch tender at the connection of the Alemada and Western Pacific roads. Even after passing the switch the accident would never have occurred but for the thick fog bank which enveloped the western Pacific train, while the Alemada train had clear weather when the collision happened and for miles around on the level plains, trains can be seen a long distance ahead. The railroad officials rendered every assistance to the unfortunate passengers. Medical aid was promptly procured in the neighboring villages and this city. The scene of the calamity was visited by thousands of our residents, some in search of relatives and friends, others from curiosity. The track was immediately repaired. The following are the additional killed: Robert Owen, H. Peterson, Corral Hollow, J. B. Milliken, W. P. C. T. Owen, and an unknown man. Wounded Philip Riley, badly injured, Simon Meloche, leg dislocated, E. F. Fitch, leg fractured, Capt. Wadsworth badly crushed. Many others are injured, but were able to proceed.

CITY COUNCILS.

A Special Meeting—Petitions, Communications, Ordinances, Resolutions, &c.

A special meeting of the Select and Common Councils of this city was held yesterday, Monday, November 15th, 1869, at 2 o'clock.

Select Council.

Members present—Messrs. Ahlborn, Brown, Burgwin, Coffin, Craig, Dickson, Gallaher Gross, Hailman, Hartman, Jones, Kane, Kehew, Laufman, Littell, Lloyd, Murdoch, Murray, McClelland McEwen, McMahon, Ogden, Phillips, Rafferty, Rush, Schmidt, Scully, Shipton, S. J. Wainwright, Watson, White Wilson and President McAuley.

The minutes of the preceeding meeting were read and approved.

The President announced that the meeting was a special one, and had been called at the request of the Street Committee. He further stated that hereafter he would require members to refrain from personalities in discussion or debate.

The Chairman presented a communication from the Controller, asking Councils to make certain transfers as follows:

GENTLEMEN: At your October meeting a resolution directing the Controller to make transfers from certain appropriations to meet deficiencies in others, passed your branch, but did not reach the Common Council in time to be acted upon, and as the estimate then made was insufficient to meet the expenses, you will please recall it and pass the accompanying resolution:

Resolved, That the City Controller be and he is hereby authorized to make the following transfers of appropriations:

From No. 2, Salaries, to No. 6, Water Works, $4,280; from No. 18, Finance, to No. 6, Water Works, $1,798.69; from No. 18, Finance, to No. 14, Board of Health, $600; from No. 8, Gas Lighting, to No. 7, Streets, $3,618.31; from No. 16, City Property, to No. 7, Streets, $1,889.89; from No. 11, Allegheny Wharf, to No. 21, Fire Alarm Telegraph, $686.68.

The report was received, and on motion of Dr. Gross the action of Councils changing appropriations at a former meeting was reconsidered.

On motion, the resolution was then adopted.

On motion, the order of business was suspended in order to take up unfinished business.

The business from the Street Committee, for the consideration of which the special meeting had been called, was reported from C. C. and taken up. It consisted of a number of ordinances for the opening of streets having been previously passed in C. C., but referred back to that body by S. C. The ordinances were corrected and passed in C. C., and S. C. concurred.

Mr. Phillips presented the bill of E. C. Matthews, for serving grading and paving notices. Referred to the Finance Committee with power to act.

Mr. Gallaher rose to make an explanation relative to what had been said by the chairman of the Committee on Retrenchment and Reform, relating to himself.

The chair ruled him out of order.

Mr. Hartman moved that Mr. Gallaher be allowed to proceed. The motion prevailed.

Mr. Gallaher commenced his remarks, when he was again ruled out of order by the Chairman, for indulging in personalities.

He was allowed to proceed again, and stated that he had been misrepresented by the Chairman of the Committee of Retrenchment and Reform in certain matters pertaining to his, the Chairman's, report.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The following business from Common Council was taken up and disposed of:

Petition for gas on St. Patrick's alley. Referred to Gas Committee.

Ordinance for numbering the houses in the Fifteenth and Seventeenth wards. Passed finally.

An ordinance for the construction of a sewer on Twenty-seventh street. Laid on the table.

Petition for viewers on Roberts street. Concurred in.

Petition for survey of Four Mile Run Road. Referred to Survey Committee.

Petition for gas lamps on Crawford street, Bedford avenue and Scott alley. Referred to Gas Committee.

A resolution referring the claim of Hastings & O'Neil, for grading and paving, to the Finance Committee, with power to act. Concurred in.

A resolution instructing the Controller to report the amount paid the City Engineer and the amount paid by said officer into the City Treasury. Adopted.

The report of the Street Committee was read and received.

NEW BUSINESS.

Mr. Scully presented a resolution instructing the Street Commissioner to provide suitable fences to guard against accidents, at Forbes and Brady streets, and on Second avenue, adjoining the Birmingham bridge. Read three times and passed.

Mr. Coffin a resolution for a gas lamp on Third avenue and Ferry street. Referred to the Gas Committee.

Mr. Kehew the petition of Gaius Bauer relative to damage sustained by him in consequence of the water flowing into his cellar. Referred to the Street Committee.

Mr. Jones an ordinance for new viewer on Boundary street. Read three times and passed.

Also, an ordinance for grading an alley in Reis and Berger's plan, Thirteenth ward. Read three times and passed.

Also, the report of viewers on the opening of Herron avenue. Approved.

Also, report of viewers on the opening of Lincoln avenue. Approved.

Mr. Gross, a petition and an ordinance for the extension of Landwehr street. Accepted.

Also, and ordinance for the grading and Macadamizing of Larimer avenue. Read three times and passed.

Mr. Brown, from the Ordinance Committee presented the following:

Resolved, By the Select and Common Councils of the city of Pittsburgh, that the following bill shall be presented to the Senate and House of Representatives of Pennsylvania, at their next session, with the request that the same be enacted for the government of said city:

An act relative to the election of City and Ward Officers in the City of Pittsburgh:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That hereafter the annual elections for members of the City Councils, school directors and ward officers, and the tri-annual election for Mayor, Treasurer and Controller within said city shall be held on the first Tuesday of December, and not on the second Tuesday of October, as provided in existing laws. Adopted.

Also the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Controller be authorized to certify a warrant in favor of the clerks of Councils for $100 each, in lieu of an increase of salary for the present year, and charge the same to Contingent Fund. Read three times and passed.

Mr. Brown, at the request of the Chairman, presented the following:

Resolved, That the City Attorney be and he is hereby requested to take part (if practicable) in the reargument of the Philadelphia paving case, (if the same shall be reargued), and obtain a reconsideration of the decision upon the question of liability of property owners for repavement of streets. Adopted.

Mr. Hailman, a resolution providing for having the record of the Subsistence Committee, which had been erased from the walls of City Hall, replaced. Adopted.

The President presented the bill of S. B. Cooper for work as Janitor of $54,50. Received, accepted and ordered to be paid.

Adjourned.

Common Council.

At half past two o'clock President Tomlinson called the meeting to order.

Members present: Messrs. Albeitz, Anderson, Bell, Berger, Black, Boggs, Carrol, Case, Caskey, Chislett, Dunseath, Fleming, Gerner, Hare, House, Houston, Hutchison, Jamison, Jones, Kremer, Lanahan, Lockhart, McClaren, McKelvy, McMasters, Meanor, Meyer, Moore, Moorhead, Morgan, Nixon, Palmer, Pearson, Penney, Rebman, Reed, Rook, Seiferth, Sims, Scott, Verner, Waughter, Weldon, Welsh, Wilson, and President Tomlinson.

Minutes read and approved.

OBJECT OF MEETING.

The President stated, the meeting had been called at the request of the Street Committee and City Controller.

BUSINESS FROM STREET COMMITTEE.

Mr. Weldon, chairman of the street Committee presented the following business; ordinances for opening of Smallman and Twentieth to Thirty-third streets inclusive except Thirty-first, all of which had been passed June 15th but were returned for correction in the endorsement a mistake having been made; they were passed finely; Report of viewers on Fourth avenue. Adopted. Report of viewers on Roberts street. Laid over for one month on motion of Mr. Reed; Report of viewers on Larimer avenue. Adopted. Report of viewers on Hazlitt street; laid over for one month. Report of viewers on Forty-second street accompanied by a petition from viewers, asking for release.

In reference to this, Mr. Weldon stated that this street was to be opened for the purpose of constructing a public sewer, but as the right of way for the sewer through private property had been granted, the opening of the street was not desired by the property owners in the vicinity.

The ordinance providing for the same, on motion was then repealed, Mr. Weldon presenting an ordinance to that effect.

NEW BUSINESS.

In the new business from the Street Committee, Mr. Weldon presented an ordinance for the construction of a public sewer on Sixth avenue and Seventh avenue, which was passed finally under suspension of rules. Petition for right of way for Pleasant Valley Passenger Railway Company was referred to the Street Committee. Petition from proprietors of Morning Post for privilege to excavate Bank alley for the purpose of building a vault for boiler, &c., was accepted. The petition was accompanied by an ordinance granting the privilege. Mr. Weldon moved a suspension of the rules and passage of the ordinance.

Mr. McCarthy objected to hasty action in the matter, which was of sufficient importance to demand some further consideration.

Mr. Morgan thought under the Consolidation Act the city had no power to grant such a privilege.

Mr. Houston called for the reading of the section referred to, which was complied with, after which the ordinance was laid over.

THE OAKLAND RAILWAY.

Mr Weldon presented a petition from the officers of the Oakland Passenger Railway in reference to the repairs of streets along their line. A resolution accompanied the paper, releasing the company from all responsibility for the condition of said streets, outside the roadway between their own tracks.

Mr. Reed moved to lay the paper on the table. Carried.

Also, an ordinance for repairing Diamond with Nicolson pavement.

Mr. Morgan objected. He contended that under the recent decisions of the Supreme Court in relation to Broad street, Philadelphia, that the city had no power to compell property owners to pay the expense of repaving.

The ordinance was laid over.

Also, an ordinance for grading and paving Thirty-first street and opening the same to the Allegheny river, which was laid over under the rules.

FROM THE CITY CONTROLLER.

A communication from the Controller was received, as it had been accepted by Select Council, accompanied by a resolution authorizing the payment of sundry bills. In this action C. C. concurred.

The communication was accompanied by the Controller's report of bills now due and ready for payment. The report had been accepted in Select Council and payment of the bills ordered. In C. C. objection was made to one item, $231 for election expenses.

Some discussion ensued on the liability of the city to pay this bill, it being contended that the county was liable for all expenses incurred in a general election. The action of Select Council was finally non-concurred in and the paper referred to the City Solicitor for his opinion on the point.

SUNDRY BILLS.

Bills for the assessment of Beech alley; of A. and J. McKenna, brass founders, and A. and J. Cochran, for work and material, were all presented from the Controller and warrants ordered. C. C. thus concurring with the action of S. C. Sept. 25th.

SUSPENSION OF RULES.

Mr. Moorhead moved a suspension of the rules to take up new business. Carried.

The gentleman then presented a petition from Thomas Graham asking for payment for damages sustained by the change of grade on Roberts street. Referred to Street Committee.

THE MAYOR'S CLERK.

Mr. McCarthy presented a petition signed by all the members of the Police Committee, except Mr. Morgan, asking for an increase of the salary of Mr. Jas Patterson, Mayor's Clerk, to $2,000. He said that previous to the consolidation the salary was $1,000, but the Police Committee were convinced that as the amount of work in the office since then had been increased five-fold, the salary was altogether too small.

The petition was accepted. It was accompanied by an ordinance providing for the proposed change.

Mr. McCarthy moved a suspension of the rules and the passage of the ordinance.

Mr. Sims stated he signed the petition as a member of the Police Committee with a proviso that the salary of the Captain of the Watch be also increased.

Mr. Morgan stated he was not in favor of any increase in the salary at the present time. He said the Councils would then be flooded with petitions from all the officers asking for an increase of their salaries. He thought Mr. Patterson deserving of a higher salary, but favored putting the matter off until the commencement of the year.

Mr. McCarthy—The gentleman's argument is not of much weight. Mr. Morgan—

President—The gentleman must not indulge in personalities.

Mr. McCarthy—Well, Mr. President, I didn't intend to be personal. The gentleman from the twenty first ward, then, His name is so familiar that I can hardly help using it. His ward is not so familiar. He talks about economy. I think it is economy to hire a good officer—economy is saving money. It is saving money to increase this salary, in proof of which I will state that for the first nine months in 1868 the amount of money turned over to the City Treasury from the Mayor's Clerk was $5,295, while for the same time, in 1869, the amount was $18,595, a difference of $12,000. It is economy to hire a good officer, and such a one is Mr. Patterson. We all know that if you, Mr. President, were to need legal services, you, or perhaps any gentleman in this house, would give Mr. Penney probably three times as much as myself on the score of competency. [Laughter.] On the same ground then I am in favor of this increase, and this Council need not be afraid of being flooded with petitions from other officers. Councils are the judges of the efficiency of their officers, and how much they should be paid, and there should be no fear of any "flooding."

Mr. Morgan reiterated his argument that this was not the proper time.

After some further discussion, objection was made to the passage of the ordinance, and a vote for the suspension of the rules being lost, it was laid over.

MORE PETITIONS.

Mr. Penney, petition for opening of Homewood avenue. Referred to Road Committee. Also, petition for extension of Landwahr street. Referred to Survey Committee.

Mr. Boggs, petition for grading Mulberry alley. Referred to Street Committee.

Mr. Hare, an ordinance supplementary to the ordinance providing for the arrest of rioters, gamblers, suspected thieves, prostitutes, disorderly persons, &c., &c. Laid over under the rules.

THE MARKET QUESTION.

Mr. Houston called up the report of the Market Committee in relation to a proposed new Market House on Fifth avenue, corner Miltenberger street. The report was accompanied by a resolution recommending the purchase of this site and the construction of the Market House on the plan as heretofore published. In Select Council the resolutions were adopted.

Mr. Sims moved to concur.

Mr. Moorhead presented a resolution which he said his colleague, Dr. McCandless, wished him to present, providing for the purchase of a site on Centre avenue for $25,000. He offered it as an amendment to the report.

Mr. Houston thought the resolution out of order, as it destroyed the original resolution. He contended that the report should first be disposed of, and then the resolution could come up as new business.

Mr. Penney was opposed to the purchase of any property by the city for market purposes. He thought a better plan would be to allow market houses to be built by private corporations, as it was done in eastern cities. In the present state of the city's finances he thought any increase in her liabilities would be very inexpedient. The plan, as proposed, to allow the market to be built by private corporations, backed by the city, the profits to be given to the city after the institution had been paid for, was very problematical.

Mr. Scott thought it unwise for the city to engage in any new enterprise of this kind, in the present state of her finances.

Mr. Morgan did not believe the city had any money to spare in speculative ideas. He thought the gentleman who proposed to build the market house should go further and buy the ground also. Thus they could make it a speculation upon their own responsibility. He would not even then favor giving a private corporation the privilege to build such a structure without binding them to turn it over to the city as soon as they had been refunded, together with six per cent. interest for their money.

After some further discussion Mr. Jones moved a suspension of the rules and a concurrence of the Select Council in the adoption of the resolutions.

The yeas and nays were called, with the following result:

Yeas—Messrs. Anderson, Bell, Berger, Black, Carroll, Case, Caskey, Chislett, Dunseath, Fleming, Gerner, House, Houston, Hutchinson, Jahn, Jamison, Jones, Kremer, Lanahan, McCarthy, McKelvy, McMasters, Meyer, Moorhead, Nixon, Palmer, Pearson, Reed, Rook, Seiferth, Sims, Weldon and Welsh—33.

Nays—Albeitz, Gildenfenny, Hare, Lockhart, McLaren, Moore, Morgan, Penney, Rebman, Scott, Verner, Wilson and Tomlinson, President—13.

The motion was accordingly lost, a three-fourths vote in its favor being required.

On motion of Mr. Moorhead the resolution offered by him was referred to the Market Committee.

Mr. McKelvy presented a resolution instructing the Market Committee to examine and report upon what terms a suitable site for a new market house could be purchased. Referred to the Market Committee.

Mr. McCarthy called up the report of the Water Committee.

The Chairman stated that business from Select Council was first in order.

A report from the Controller was then read, and the action of Select Council concurred in.

Mr. McCarthy—Now, Mr. President, I move that the rules be suspended and the report of the Water Committee be taken up. I insist upon my motion.

Mr. Morgan—(Rising with a ponderous document grasped fiercely in his hand, and a determined air.) Mr. President, I move that the report of the Committee on Retrenchment and Reform be now taken up.

Mr. McCarthy—My motion is in order, and I want the chairman to put it now.

President—I didn't hear any second to the gentleman's motion.

Several voices—I second it; I second it.

A vote was then taken on the motion to suspend, which was lost, twenty-one voting against and nineteen in favor.

Mr. Reed.—I move we adjourn.

Mr. Jones, excitedly.—No, Mr. President, I have a resolution—that is—

Mr. McCarthy.—Let us finish up the business and—

Several voices.—Let us adjourn.

A vote was taken on the motion to adjourn, which was decided lost by the President. A decision was then called for amid great confusion, motions, resolutions and called for business, when a standing vote was taken on adjournment, and the question decided affirmatively.

FIRE LAST NIGHT.

A Portion of Hartupee's Machine Shop Destroyed—Origin of the Fire Unknown—Loss About $10,000, Fully Insured.

Last night, at about ten minutes to twelve o'clock, a fire broke out in the old machine shop connected with the works of Mr. Andrew Hartupee, located at the corner of Short and First streets, opposite the Duquesne School House.

The portion of the building in which the fire originated was an old two story brick structure, which had been formerly occupied as the main shop. A new four story building, however, a short distance above it on First street, had been erected, and nearly all of the machinery and valuable patterns removed there about ten days ago.

The upper story of the old building, however, contained a large quantity of old patterns worth about $8,000, but costing, when new, three times as much. Below on the first floor was a lot of machinery, which was to have been removed as soon as the arrangement were made for it in the new building.

About an hour before the fire broke out officer Brown thought he smelled burning wood in the neighborhood of the shop, and to satisfy himself made an examination from the outside of the premises, but discovered nothing. In making his last round he observed the flames breaking out from the roof near the smoke stack. The alarm was struck from box three, and the engines were on the ground in a few minutes, but before they had arrived the whole roof was on fire and the flames were quickly consuming the patterns in the upper story. The firemen worked at saving the other part of the building, and succeeded in keeping the flames in check, although that portion in which the fire originated was destroyed. The building was not very valuable, and the machinery on the first floor was damaged principally by water. Most of it will be of use again. The patterns are a total loss. The entire damage will amount to about $10,000, on which there is a full insurance in eastern companies, represented by Loomis and Collingwood. The fire burned for more than an hour. There was a great deal of property in the neighborhood, all frame, in danger, but through the exertions of the firemen the conflagration was kept in check. The fire is supposed to have originated from a spark from the flue of the smoke stack, but its origin is not definitely known.

Wholesale Liquor Dealers.

A meeting of the Wholesale Liquor Dealers of this city and vicinity was held at the Board of Trade Rooms, Wood street, yesterday, for the purpose of appointing delegates to attend the National Convention of Wholesale Liquor Dealers to be held at Chicago on the 24th inst.

The meeting organised by calling Mr. A. E. Stevenson to the chair.

The following resolution was presented:

Resolved, That a Committee of Three be appointed by the Chairman to attend the Convention at Chicago, on the 24th inst., to represent the liquor interest of Pittsburgh.

Adopted, and Messrs. A. E. Stevenson, James Littell and Jacob Keller appointed on the Committee.

Mr. Bennell offered the following:

Resolved, That the Committee be instructed that the interests of distillers are not to prevail in its Convention.

Resolved, That they be authorized to favor the collection of all excise duties and taxes on whisky at the distillers' and bonded warehouses.

Resolved, That whisky, after leaving the distillery or bonded warehouse, shall not be controlled or interfered with by the Government.

Resolved, That recognizing the virtue of our Republican institutions, we decline entering into any trade organization, believing that when any act of oppression takes place, there will be the men and the means to correct it.

The first resolution was voted down and the others adopted.

On motion, Messrs. Keller, Roh and Bennett were appointed to solicit subscriptions in connection with D. W. Boss, Chairman of the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Stevenson was on motion appointed Treasurer of the Association.

On motion adjourned.

Delegation in Behalf of Ireland.

We understand that the Rev. Dr. Price of Aberdare, Wales, and Rev. Mr. Henry of Belfast, are to address the meeting to be held at Lafayette Hall this evening, at 7½ o'clock. Few men are said to be better informed on the subject of the religious necessities and hopes of Ireland, and few more eloquent in setting them forth than these gentlemen. Their views of the effect upon Ireland of the disestablishment of the English Church will be given, we doubt not, in full, and at present there is no question so full of importance to Ireland and the British Isles. Evangelization will be promoted by the disestablishment.

ALABAMA.

Meeting of the Legislature—The Governor's Message.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

MONTGOMERY, November 15.—The Alabama Legislature met to-day. The Governor's message was read in both Houses. It is very conservative. He combats the calls made for martial law, and says there has been no necessity for them. It sets forth the general peacefulness of the people, and the advantage offered in this State for emigration; favors the reduction of taxes, and a limit to the endorsement of the State for railroads. The message is generally regarded as more moderate and conservative than was expected.

Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Market extremely dull and somewhat depressed, especially for cotton goods. The following are the most important changes to-day: Lancaster 10-4 brown sheetings are reduced from 40 to 37½; Lowell 10-4 bleached do from 42½ to 40; Lancaster 10-4 do from 45½ to 42½; do 9-4 do from 40 to 37½, and Monadnock 10-4 do from 47½ to 45.

OFFICIAL PAPER
Of Pittsburgh, Allegheny and Allegheny County.

TUESDAY, NOV. 16, 1869.

U. S. Bonds at Frankfort, 89@89½.

Petroleum at Antwerp, firm at 61¼f.

Gold closed in New York yesterday at 127@127½.

The City Councils held a special meeting yesterday. There was no business of importance transacted in either branch worthy of note. The question on the purchase of the Coleman Hailman site for new water works was brought up in the Common branch, but under a rule requiring three-fourths of all members present, action was delayed, objection having been made to the consideration at a special meeting of so important a question. The Fifth avenue market project met with similar fate, but in both instances a majority of the members, as the last vote demonstrated, were in favor of the questions as adopted in the Select branch.

LAND, HO!

We have more than once, of late, adverted to the plainly manifest indications that the Secretary of the Treasury, in his Annual Report, which will be laid before Congress and the country within the next three weeks, would pointedly call attention to the practicable condition under which the finances of the Government and of the country might be placed upon a cash basis by or before the end of the present fiscal year. We have not submitted any suggestions for or against the real merits of that proposition, being content with such mere mention of plain facts, and of the potent inferences from them, as would inform our readers as to the actual drift of the financial current. The most prominent of these facts has been the clearly manifest opinion of Secretary Boutwell that, under the conditions specified, such a resumption would be entirely practicable. And the inference was unavoidable that in this direction would lay the policy of the Government.

It might have been inferred, also, with equal propriety, that the Treasury Department could not have reached this conclusion, and that the Secretary would not assume the critical responsibility involved in presenting recommendations of such marked consequence to the financial interests of the country, without the cordial concurrence of the President himself. It does not, therefore, surprise any one, who has thoughtfully observed the course of recent developments to learn that the suggestions and recommendations of the Treasury Report are to be sustained and enforced in the forthcoming message.

The financial policy of the Administration is thus clearly foreshadowed: 1st. No essential disturbance of the present scheme of internal taxation; 2d. The least possible amount of tampering with the basis or the volume of the present currency; 3d. The preservation, intact, of all the existing sources of revenue supply; 4th. The persevering reduction of the public debt by the instrumentalities which have been already attended with such marked success; 5th. Modification of the present taxes at the earliest moment consistent with the maintenance of that policy of reduction; 6th. Resumption of cash payments by the Government, and equally, of course, in the business of the people within the twelve months ensuing. These positions, unless all the signs are deceptive, will be presented to the country, at the opening of the session, and sustained with all the power of facts, of convincing argument and of the official influence of the Administration. And we hazard little in predicting that, with more or less of latitude in the adjustment of a large variety of collateral questions, these positions will command the approval of Congress.

THE KANSAS PACIFIC RAILWAY.

This great thoroughfare, which was formerly known as the Union Pacific Railway, Eastern Division, was, while it bore that name, constructed as far as Sheridan, a little town near the western border of Kansas, 405 miles west of Kansas City, on the Missouri river. So far it received from the Government the same subsidy that the Union Pacific Railroad, running west from Omaha, received; but the subsidy voted to it by Congress was limited to that point, and the work lay suspended for a period of nearly two years.

Sheridan is in the very midst of the plains, and is, in itself, a place of no commercial importance whatever. It has no settled population around it, and nothing to sustain it except that it has been for a while the terminus of the road, the place where the trade of the regions beyond, principally New Mexico and Colorado, is transferred from the railroad trains to wagon trains. This has given it for the past two years an importance which it will only retain as long as it is the terminus of the road, which will be but a few months longer.

Yet, although that road begins at the Missouri, where it has several first class eastern connections, and at present terminates in the heart of the great uninhabitated plains, its trade and travel are enormous, and its revenues very remunerative. Few roads in the country are yielding better returns upon the cost of construction. This is mainly owing to the amazing rapidity with which Kansas, east of the Plains, is filling up with population. That part into which emigration is pouring so rapidly has a breadth from east to west of from 220 to 240 miles. Beyond that the country will not settle rapidly, except by herdsmen, to which business it is well adapted, or will be when the Indians and wolves shall cease to prowl over it. About two hundred miles west of the Missouri there is one of the finest regions of arable land perhaps on the continent, and directly beyond that there is a belt of more rugged and broken country, well watered and full of beautiful little valleys, which is perhaps the best adapted to the dairy business of any place in the United States, as has been practically proven. So far, therefore, this road is a great success.

Recently the Company resolved to push the road on to Denver. The success of what they had done inspired the confidence of capitalists; and now we witness what has never before been seen, a great railroad pushing out far beyond the boundaries of settlement by private enterprise unaided by the Government. Early in the past summer the surveyors began their work at Sheridan, and about the first of November the survey was completed to Denver. Already contractors are at work and some miles of the track laid west of Sheridan. The work will be vigorously prosecuted, and in a few months a direct communication by rail to Denver, and to many of the mining towns of Colorado, will be effected. This will be of immense commercial importance to the whole country, and especially to manufacturing cities like this; for perhaps there is no State or Territory in the whole Union that needs and will require such an amount of machinery as Colorado. The mines of that region, especially those of gold and copper, are practically unlimited; and all that is needed to render them remunerative is cheaper transportation.

It is a fact not known to many, or not thought of, that the U. P. Railroad (the Omaha road) does not touch Colorado at all. It is true that a branch road from Cheyenne City, in Wyoming Territory, to Denver, is far advanced and will soon be completed. The distance is about 120 miles almost due south along the base of the mountains. But the best part of Colorado, both in soil and minerals, lies to the southeast of Denver, and in the magnificent parks lying just above it in the heart of the mountains, to the west and southwest.

The surveyors, some sixty miles east of Denver, on the plains, found far reaching mines of coal of excellent quality, lying in horizontal strata, one of which is seven feet and half in thickness; another of between three or four feet, divided from the first by a stratum of shale of about the same thickness. The value of this coal, in such a place, can hardly be estimated. All along the base of the mountains coal is very abundant, sometimes lying in horizontal, sometimes in vertical strata. It is not strictly bituminous, nor is it anthracite. It is solid, jet black, and glossy; it burns brightly with a clear, bright flame, but with little smoke, leaving gray ashes.

The surveyors, in their letters, speak of the magnificent views of the mountains which they have from the line of the road for many miles as they approach Denver. Pike's Peak, among the rest, looms up in its grandeur in the southwest; and is in full view for a long distance. The magnificent scenery and the salubrious climate of the region which this road opens up will make it the most attractive which tourists can take in the pursuit of health and recreation.

This company, we are informed, have purchased the road from Denver to Cheyenne City, so that as soon as the Denver branch of the Kansas Pacific road shall be completed, the line from Kansas City to San Francisco will be just as open, clear and unbroken as that from Omaha. Meantime, the original design to carry the main line of this road through New Mexico and Arizona to the Pacific and the Gulf of California, reaching all the important ports from San Francisco to Guyamas, is adhered to and will unquestionably be carried out.

MONUMENT HILL.

In accordance with the almost unanimous expression of the public preference, both at the recent election and in the preceding discussions of the subject, the location of the Monument, to the memory of those soldier citizens of Allegheny county who gave their lives for their country during the war of the rebellion, has been finally and permanently fixed upon the Seminary Hill, in Allegheny. This very remarkable eminence rises nearly if not quite one hundred feet from the almost level station which that city occupies, with a position thrown well forward from the main river hills, so that it is surrounded on all sides by the populous town. No situation could have been more happily designed for the intended structure, had it been necessary, for a location on that side of the river, that an artificial elevation should have been prepared. The Monument itself will undoubtedly be a work of such magnitude and of such conspicuous taste and beauty, as shall be justified by the very handsome fund already set apart for its cost. When completed, it will be visible from almost every part of the two cities; from the Pittsburgh side of the river, it will certainly be better seen than if it were situated on this side of the Allegheny. It will also strike prominently upon the eyes of travellers entering and leaving the city by the river, and by every railway but one which radiates from this central point.

Now that the question of location, for a while so much vexed, has been determined, it is pleasant to know that the work of construction will be proceeded with at once, both in the erection of the Monument itself and in the due preparation of its magnificent natural pedestal, the Hill itself. In these labors, the Committee of the Association and the Park Commissioners will, we are assured, co operate most harmoniously and efficiently, so that there shall be no needless delays in the completion and formal dedication of this testimonial of the deep popular affection cherishing the memory of our dead brave.

THE CORNER.

We take the following contribution to the current oil corner literature, from the Philadelphia "Press" of the 12th inst., for the double purpose of commending its morals as applicable to "Cornering" whether the same be engineered by bulls or by bears, and of condemning the fling at the "smoky borough" of Pittsburgh, "a suburb of Philadelphia". The Press should know that suburbs are the outgrowth or overgrowth of cities, and that in this view of the word, Philadelphia is our suburb, to a much greater extent, than we are theirs, as for every man or dollar they have sent to us, we have sent two or more to them. In the sense of of the "Press", Buffalo might be called a suburb of New York, but not so of Pittsburgh and Philadelphia. We have the authority of an eminent jurist, the late Judge Gibson, for saying that the smoke we are twitted about, is the smoke of a vast industry, a thing to be proud of.

A PETROLEUM CORNER.

Cincinnati has her hogs, Chicago her grain, New York her gold and watered stocks, Pittsburgh her oil. Heretofore on 'Change these former staples have been mighty foot balls tossed to and fro by excited players, who miscalled their game business, and in the heat of the play they whom the ball struck went down, with their families and creditors, a wreck and ruin. Oil so far has been exempt from the gambling of the market, probably because it was a staple of the quiet and respectable Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and the sedate, substantial spirit of the old Quaker founders extended across the Alleghenies and held rule there. Certain it is that thus far the respectable borough of smoke, which the Pennsylvania Central has made a suburb of Philadelphia, has never disgraced the parent city by any very undue behavior in the market, but now comes Pittsburgh, and says that oil shall henceforth be raised to the level of hogs and grain and Vanderbilt stock, and that she is going to have a—"corner." With a fine eye to the dramatic effect of contrast, the time to try this double-edged toy has been fixed for the grand reunion gathering of the Old and New School General Assembly.

The local press lecture the operators soundly, but apparently the gamblers have gone to work systematically and with some considerable shrewdness. A million of dollars, says the Dispatch in an able editorial, has been put in the pool already, and operations have already commenced. It is said that many of the banks have been involved in the transaction, most of them unintentionally. Three months must elapse before the corner will be perfect, and it will require the controlling, one way or another, of some $12,000,000.

It is in this three months' business that the danger lies. As much of the oil as possible must be kept up the river, and to do that all the moral pressure and high toned tactics of the James Fisk, Jr., order are being employed: but should the river rise, should the rains decend, and the flood come, then, too, will fall grief and loss on the corner men.

Our advice to the ambitious operators of Pittsburgh is to stop before their taste for this kind of game is up. In playing "pussy wants a corner," remember somebody is always left out in the cold. We give them this advice merely for their pockets. We leave the case of their souls to the General Assemblies. As Pittsburgh is the representative city of Calvinism in the United States, of course it would be indecorous in us to interfere in things spiritual just at this juncture.

FARM, GARDEN AND HOUSEHOLD.

Condition of the Crops.

DEP'T OF AGRICULTURE, STATISTICAL DIV., WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 20, 1869.

The great agricultural lesson of the season inculcates the necessity of draining and thorough culture. It is not an exaggeration to estimate the reduction this season, from the alternate drowning and scorching of farm crops, at two hundred millions of dollars. Reports from drouth parched regions declare the crops "in fair condition on lands well worked," and that the effect of the heat was "aggravated by want of cultivation as dry weather set in;" that on drained soils, properly cultivated, fine crops were obtained, while on wet and undrained lands, and fields neglected or half cultivated, a failure was imminent. The crop returns of Great Britain (where the early season was similar to ours) enforce the same lesson, though a far smaller proportion of British lands are undrained or poorly cultivated.

Corn.—The general apprehension of serious failure in the corn crop of the more northern States has been materially modified by the sunny weather in September, and exemption from killing frosts up to October 1st. Early frosts in some portions of the eastern and middle States checked ripening and left the frosted fields in an immature and damaged condition; but the injury is comparatively slight in extent and limited in area. As a whole, the crop has had an unusually favorable maturing season, resulting in a very gratifying amelioration of the prospect for a supply of this important staple; yet a full crop—which should not be less than 1,150,000 bushels—can by no means be expected. When the harvest is over, and local estimates are completed, the aggregate will attest a moderate yield, yet an ample sufficiency for all the wants of the country.

Wheat.—Had the spring wheat been equal to the winter, the crop would have been enormous. Throughout the South the yield is unusually large, and the quality excellent. In Illinois, the counties reporting an increase equivalent to ten per cent. or more are almost without exception in the southern part of the State, below the fortieth parallel—the winter wheat region; those claiming eight-tenths of a crop or less are, with one or two exceptions, spring wheat counties. Indiana grows a larger proportion of winter wheat, and consequently has this year produced a much better average yield than Illinois. Ohio, another winter wheat State, exhibits a remarkable increase in nearly all the wheat growing counties.

Wheat is quite variable in quality, much of the winter variety being superior, and some of it in the west injured by wet weather or lodging. Spring wheat did not generally mature so perfectly, and much of it in the northwest was injured in the shock or destroyed by floods. Complaints are made in some localities of disappointment in the yield in threshing.

Oats—Rarely has there been a better season for oats than the present, very few of the States returning a less increase than ten per cent., and some giving thirty or thirty five per cent. The quality is generally superior. The cool wet weather of the spring and early summer were favorable to this crop.

Rye—This minor grain crop has scarcely held its own in Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, and some of the Southern States, but has yielded abundantly upon an increased area in most of the States, particularly those upon the Atlantic slope.

Barley—An attempt has been made, with a fair show of success, to enlarge the production of this grain and terminate the scandal of its importation. The quality is generally good.

Buckwheat—This crop is less than an average, except in the New England States and in the northwestern.

Potatoes—The season has been too dry for either kind of potatoes in the South and on the Atlantic coast to New York. New England generally has a good crop, and it is unusually good in the west, with the exception of Minnesota. The product of sweet potatoes is manifestly decreased.

Tobacco—The condition of this crop is not favorable to a large production. About two-thirds of a crop is expected in Maryland and Virginia, and not exceeding nine tenths in Kentucky and other portions of the west.

Sorghum—The condition of sorghum is comparatively low in most of the States. The moisture and coolness of the early part of the season were unfavorable to growth and to the development of the saccharine element in the plant.

Fattening Cattle—A slight increase is reported in the aggregate numbers of fattening cattle, as well as in their average condition. Some of the States fail to maintain a full average, among which are New York, New Jersey, Kentucky and Illinois.

FALL PLOWING.

Not within the memory of the oldest farmer has there been such a sod as now. Hills and plains that were almost barren are covered, and all apparently with an equally dense turf. So did the country never look before. It is the result of two seasons. The long spring and fall rains of last year established the sod, notwithstanding the drought that intervened, and now the present moist season finishes it.

This is of course a great gain to the farmer. Here he has fertility from the atmosphere, the best that can be obtained, and thus most ready for use. He needs but turn this down, which has cost him no money nor labor, but which the abundant storehouse of nature has provided for him. And this is the best that he can do with it—with at least a large share, for the grass the year to follow if the season is not favorable, will not do so well as grain would.

Where there is a rather stiff clay sod we would say plow in the fall. If the land has been accustomed to shallow plowing, cut a little deeper; an inch is not too much. This on the top exposed to the frost, the rains and the snows will be pretty much corrected by the time the corn wants to be planted, which is not till somewhat late in comparison with other grains, giving the sun also a chance. This raw topsoil mixed with the rest—which the cultivator or harrow will do—and having been acted upon for a long time by the various elements, and now made one with the rest of the soil, is just as good a bed for corn as if the raw soil had not been brought up and better, if the subsoil is good, in which case it will be improved—what the age, we may say, needs—a bringing up of the fertile soil.

It is a good general rule to plow all clay soil in the fall. If sod, plow earlier; if stubble, later. But both would be better turned in the winter, if that were practicable. What experience we have had in this way has been corroborative of the benefits of winter plowing. The difficulty is, not having the frost out or the snow away, but in getting the land dry enough.

Here your insects and foul weeds are exposed, and there is no chance for the grass. It is as if the land were plowed in the spring, and yet had the benefit of winter. Nothing is finer than this.

FALL WORK IN THE WINTER.

The fall is generally the best season in the year for making improvements in the garden. After the field is mostly out of the way, men and boys have more time to attend to such matters in the spring, when there is a general anxiety and hurry to push regular farm work. The soil is dry, the weather is generally good, and every surrounding agreeable, while just the reverse is apt to be the case in the spring, and on this account everything but what is absolutely necessary is sure to be posponed until fall.

Any garden soil is improved by being plowed or spaded in the fall, and left open to be mellowed and invigorated by the action of the frost or the atmosphere.

If the door yard, or lawn, is rough, or grown up with bushes that are not wanted, take the spade or hoe, and put it in good, level, clean condition, so that it may easily be kept mowed smooth next season. If there are any barren patches, soil them, or sow blue grass and clover seed on them in February or March next.

Before winter sets in in earnest, see that everything not likely to prove quite hardy is covered up.

Of course, all tender plants, as dahlias, gladiolas, tube roses and other bulbs, must be taken up and stored away.

Dahlias and gladiolas will do well enough in a dry cellar, where the temperature is about 40 in winter. Dahlias keep best in dry sand or other material, just so as not to allow the tubers to shrink up. Gladiolas, after they have dried somewhat, should be cleaned of all roots and tops, placed in paper bags and laid on a shelf or drawer till wanted in the spring.

The whole family of pinks, though generally left exposed to the weather, would fare better if covered with leaves from the forest or rough manure.

A bed of spring bulbs should be prepared and planted, as near the door-yard as practicable. Their early bloom, even before the snow has entirely ceased to fall, or the frosts to bite, will prove a welcome harbinger of spring, and anticipate the season of beauty and fragrance. The soil, if not sandy, should be well drained, and mixed with one-fourth part of loose sand from the creek. Plant the large bulbs three or four inches deep, and the small ones about two inches. Spread a few inches of rotten manure over the bed in the fall, which should be removed in the spring.

Lettuce and spinach can be raised nearly a month earlier by planting the seeds late in the autumn, and covering them an inch. Make your beds rich with hen or barn-yard manure for lettuce and spinach; the latter is said to be the best test of the richness of the land—it must be well fed to flourish. Cover the beds with leaves, straw, or hemlock boughs, and, if possible, place boards over them to retain the coverings.

In April remove the rubbish, and your plants will soon flourish. The careful observer will remember how often lettuce and spinach come forward early in the spring from having sown themselves the previous autumn.

DOMESTIC RECIPES.

Fried Oysters.—Take one-half a pound of good sweet butter (not lard), melt and let it get quite hot in a skillet or frying-pan. Have a plate of wheat flour ready. Now take out the oysters and drop each one in the flour, turning it over so as to cover each side with flour, then drop into the butter. Let them fry till nicely browned. Serve while hot. Oysters cooked in this way are good enough for the palate of a king, or even for an American sovereign.—Correspondence Cincinnati Gazette.

Economy in Meat.—Take cold meat of any kind—pieces left from the table; cut in pieces a quarter of an inch square; put in a frying-pan; cover the meat with water; put in a small piece of butter, pepper and salt; when this comes to a bil stir in a little flour and water, previously mixed. Have two or three slices of bread toasted; place them on a platter, pour over them the meat and gravy while hot. This will be found an excellent dish prepared from meat usually thrown away.

Mince Pies without Apples or Meat.—For the benefit of those, who, like myself, are in a new country where apples are scarce, and beef much more so, I send you a recipe for mock mince pies: One teacup of bread; one of vinegar; one of water; one of raisens; one of sugar; one of molasses; one-half of butter, one teaspoon of cloves; one of nutmeg; one of cinnamon. The quantity is sufficient for three pies. They are equally as good as those made in the usual way. I have never yet seen a person that could tell the difference. Try them, all ye lovers of mince pies, and my word for it, you will pronounce them excellent.

Make Your Own Candles.—Take two pounds of alum for every ten pounds of tallow; dissolve in warm water before the tallow is put in; then melt the tallow in the alum water with frequent stirring. This will clarify and harden the tallow so as to make a most beautiful article, either for summer or winter use, almost as good as sperm.

Barley Soup.—Take two pounds of beef, a quarter pound of pearl barley, two onions sliced, two carrots chopped, salt and pepper to taste, place in a gallon pot, fill up with cold water, boil very gently for five hours.

TO FATTEN CHICKENS.

It is hopeless to attempt to fatten them while they are at liberty. They must be put in a proper coop; and this, like most other poultry appurtenances, need not be expensive. To fatten twelve fowls, a coop may be twelve feet long, eighteen inches high and eighteen inches deep, made entirely of bars. No part solid—neither top, sides, nor bottom. Discretion must be used according to the sizes of the chickens put up. They do not not want room; indeed, the closer they are, the better—provided they can all stand up at the same time. Care must be taken to put up such as have been accustomed to be together, or they will fight. If one is quarrelsome, it is better to remove it at once; as, like other bad examples, it soon finds imitators. A diseased chicken should not be put up. The food should be ground oats, and may either be put up in a trough, or on a flat board running along the front of the coop. It may be mixed with water or milk; the latter is the better. It should be well soaked, forming a pulp as loose as can be, provided it does not run off the board. They must be well fed three or four times a day—the first time as soon after daybreak as may be possible or convenient, and then at intervals of four hours. Each meal should be as much and no more than they can eat up clean. When they have done feeding, the board should be wiped, and some gravel may be spread. It causes them to feed and thrive.—Cottage Gardener.

HOW TO SAVE GIRDLED FRUIT TREES.

A correspondent of the Nashua (N. H.) Telegraph says Mr. Lemuel Town of that place practices successfully a method of his own invention for saving girdled trees. His method, which was first applied to a fruit tree in his own garden in Milford, is to graft five or six scions as large around as a goose quill and long enough to reach over the girdled place, into the tree. The live bark is first notched above and below the girdle, the sprouts sprung into place and the ends fastened with wax. These scions grow rapidly and in time spread over the whole girdled surface. Two thriftly apple trees standing upon the premises of Samuel B. Weston, on Temple street, in Nashua, were completely girdled by mice eighteen years ago, one of them having the bark taken off over a foot in width on one side, and were saved in the above manner by Mr. Town, and they are still in good bearing condition.

VARIOUS ITEMS.

A Michigan farmer has cleared $17,500 from his peach crop.

Connecticut seed leaf tobacco has brought sixty cents per pound this fall.

The damage to the apple crop of Michigan by the late cold snap is estimated at $1,000,000.

A late fire in New Hampshire has caused a neighboring row of apple trees to bud and blossom.

A farmer, in selecting cattle, should be sure to choose those that have a well formed head, with a full, mild eye.

A correspondent of the Hearth and Home has a novel cure for a balky horse. He says: "Fill his mouth with dry, loose dirt, take hold of the bit, and he will go if there is any go in him."

In screwing nuts into any part of machinery in cold weather, be careful not to heat them with the hands, or they will contract after being screwed on tight and become immovable afterward.

Bad odors from stye or stable offend the nostrils and impoverish a farm. The richest manures are those that have been so treated as to emit little or no smell. Dried peat is the best deodoriser. Manure that has given off most of its stench, is like cider that has stood all day in an open pitcher.

Rye, as a crop, is not properly appreciated. It springs up early in the season, and is valuable as a grain crop long before clover is large enough to feed, and as a seed crop is valuable for bread—more healthy mixed with corn than wheat bread. Sown early it makes excellent fall feed for stock after grass has ceased to supply pasture for stock.

Agriculturists in California are turning their attention to the raising of opium. Poppy plant, it is found, will grow there almost without cultivation, and the gathering of the juice of heads, of which opium consists, is as simple in operation as the making of maple sugar. Raw opium is worth about $20 a pound, and it will be seen that the pecuniary inducements to embark in the business are very great.

Kentucky promises that ere long our belles will not have to send to India for Cashmere shawls. The Angora goat is now successfully bred in this country and of the three or four thousand wool-bearing goats of the best breeds, Kentucky claims the largest share. Neither France nor England has been so successful as America in acclimatizing this valuable animal; Kentucky especially is already producing superb worsted stuff from the Angora wool, and Cashmere shawls are the next in order.

The best time for Killing Hogs.—A correspondent in the Journal of Agriculture says:

Kill your hogs the very first cold spell after the 15th of November. It is a mistaken idea that to save your pork you must have extreme cold weather. Pork should never freeze after killing; you can never make good bacon of frozen hogs. If the weather is sufficiently cold to form ice, if only one-fourth of an inch thick, it is cold enough.

Your meat will take salt in moderately cold weather very quick; in extremely cold weather it will hardly take salt at all.

Horses out of Condition.—Feed once a day cut hay or oats, with bran or ship-stuff, with as much good hay as they will eat clean. Change feed as often as possible, as they seem to relish it better. The aim is to keep their digestive organs in a healthy condition. Keep stables well ventilated and clean, with plenty of light.

In breeding to improve stock, it is of the first importance that the male should be of superior pedigree.

Raising of a Man-of-War.

Two years since a number of citizens of Philadelphia conceived the idea of raising the hull of the British sixty-four gun ship Augusta, sunk in the Delaware river, about a mile and a half below Fort Mifflin. The ship was one of his Royal Highness, King George's fleet, and was blown up, the concussion driving one of her sides out. This occurred in the year 1777, and since that time the waters of the Delaware have had full sweep at forcing the mud and sand into and through the shattered hull. On Friday of last week, all that remained of the ship was floated and taken to Gloucester, creating intense excitement along the river and among the Jersey folks, who were anxious to see the vessel they had heard of and read so much about. Among the relics recovered were a silver spoon, very heavy, bearing the maker's mark, and a crest conspicuously engraved upon the end. Near the bowl is engraved "H. W., 1774." Upon a piece of metal, about four inches long and an inch wide, is very plainly engraved the Lord's Prayer, appended to which is the name David Pyett, 1774. On the reverse side is engraved various designs. A wonderful looking silver watch, small in size, and almost round in shape, is another rare curiosity. The divers brought up a number of British guineas of the date of 1765, and they are very perfect, and now that they are no longer in circulation in Great Britain are, of course, very valuable. Two heavy cannon have been recovered bearing the British coat of arms, and it is estimated that at least one hundred tons of kentlidge is in the hull. This kentlidge is composed of flat pieces of iron about two feet long, and used for ballast. Each piece bears the royal stamp of the king, the letter R. It is supposed that there are at least one hundred tons of shot on board the vessel. Battle axes, cutlasses, guns, pistols, and all of the paraphernalia of a man-of-war are visible, and much of it will be saved. The timbers of the ship are in an elegant state of preservation, and a novel feature of her construction is that she was put together by trunnels, no bolts being used.

Dr. KEYSER would respectfully invite those who have failed to get Relief from other sources to inquire into his mode of treatment.

MALARIOUS FOGS.

Countless millions of cubic feet of malarious vapor reek from the moist earth every twenty-four hours during the month of November. This evaporated moisture is the active principle which begets fever and ague, bilious remittents, indigestion, dysentery, bilious cholic, rheumatism, and many other ailments which prevail more generally in the Fall than at other seasons, and some of which, in low, swampy regions and new clearings, take the form of virulent epidemic. The best safeguard against these complaints, as evidenced by the experience of a long series of years, is HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, the most pleasant, and at the same time the most efficient of all vegetable tonics. The invigoration of the system is manifestly the best means of defending it against the causes of sickness, whether constitutional or casual. Nature, as every pathologist knows, is the most determined enemy of disease, and the paroxysms of an acute malady are in most instances the consequence of the efforts she makes to conquer the foe. The great objects, therefore, of preventive treatment is to reinforce the system, and it is accomplished thoroughly, rapidly, and safely, by the use of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS. This powerful tonic contains also an aperient and corrective principle. It is no less valuable as a regulator and purifier than as an invigorant, and there is no danger of exciting the brain or over stimulating the circulation by employing it as an antidote.

RARE AND FASHIONABLE CONFECTIONS
FOR PRESENTS.
GEO. BEAVEN,
114 FEDERAL STREET, Allegheny City.

DR. WHITTIER
CONTINUES TO TREAT ALL private diseases, Syphilis in all its forms, all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness and Impotency, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produces some of the following effects, as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and therefore imprudent, are permanently cured. Persons afflicted with these or any other delicate, intricate or long standing constitutional complaint should give the Doctor a trial; he never fails.

A particular attention given to all Female complaints, Leucorrhea or Whites, Falling, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Womb, Ovaritis, pruritis, Amenorrhoea, Menorrhagia, Dysmenorrhoea, and Sterility or Barrenness, are treated with the greatest success.

It is self-evident that a physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire greater skill in that specialty than one in general practice.

The Doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases, that can be had free at office or by mail for two stamps, in sealed envelopes. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.

The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instances, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, while in others daily personal attention is required, and for the accommodation of such patients there are apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared in the Doctor's own laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlets at office free, or by mail for two stamps. No matter who have failed, read what he says. Hours 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. Sundays 12 M. to 3 P. M. Office, No. 9 WYLIE STREET, (near Court House,) Pittsburgh.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, November 15, 1869.

The advance in the rate for foreign exchange has put up the price of gold from 126⅝ to 127⅛, with a very firm feeling. The short interest in the gold room is almost entirely closed out, and the easy money market enables holders of gold to carry it at a comparatively low rate of interest. The outside public and importers are more directly interested now to see an advance in the premium than the regular dealers and gold brokers, but the absence of any clearing house facilities prevents larger transactions than the actual gold now on the market, since the actual gold is delivered in every instance, and no small houses with limited means can engage in the dealing, although they may be able to carry or to borrow gold. In speaking of the price of gold in these columns, it is not so much the value of gold expressed in currency as the influence of a low or high quotation of gold will have on our general market of manufactures, as well as produce. A high currency value of gold would make the farmer who holds grain, or the planter who has cotton to sell, dispose of his product and pay off his debts; would stimulate the cultivation of large fields of grain and cotton, and would contribute to a certain bouyancy to trade and industry; but when we consider how demoralizing the influence of a depreciated currency is on the whole population, and the fact that we are also, lately getting poorer every year in spite of our abundant crops, every effort should be made to come down to specie payments at as early a period as can be done without restoring to violent legislative measures.

Before the Administration and Congress can pass any laws aiming directly at an early resumption, gold should fall at least below 120 in order to bring down the currency price of bonds, which would be no discredit to our national finances, although it might prevent the pet scheme of our Secretary of the Treasury from funding the debt at a lower rate of interest. It is very doubtful whether this could be accomplished even by offering a new loan in Europe. The prospect of a lower interest on our national debt would lower the market value of bonds per se, and would throw a large number of bonds on the market from private individuals as well as national banks of good standing, which would abandon their privileges and do business under a less strict survillance. The greatest obstacle in the way of a reduction of interest on our national indebtedness and a too early resumption of specie payment, is the large amount of our securities held abroad, now estimated at twelve hundred million dollars, or more than one half of our funded debt. A reduction of taxes, and even of duties on the necessaries of life, would probably more speedily assist to come to a sound currency and help up trade and the industry of the country than any other legislative measures.

Bonds were dull to-day, less sympathizing with gold than for some time, but gradually yielded under large offers to sell.

Stocks are dull, and fluctuating within narrow limits. At the close a better feeling prevailed.

Money very scarce, and only procurable at high rates.

Business inactive.

Quotations as received by Ph. R. (By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 15, 1869.

In the Executive Session of the Gold Board this afternoon Mr. Hoyt, in behalf of the Executive Committee, offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

WHEREAS, Several of the officers and members of this Board have been threatened with legal proceedings for fulfilling their duties under the Constitution of this Exchange, it is hereby

Resolved, That the Board give its hearty countenance and emphatic support to the officers and committees in the discharge of all duties required by the Constitution.

The report of the Committee on Clearing House was then made and adopted. This report provides for the re-establishment of the New York Gold Exchange Bank as a clearing house. The only modification made to the report, as rendered by the committee, was the adoption of a provision to exclude all except full members of the Gold Room from the privileges of the clearing house.

There was considerable shifting of call loans on stocks, which, in connection with the fact that there was a little more activity in leading railway shares, caused a more active demand for money. Late in the day, between 2 and 3 o'clock, inquiry from stock brokers was more active than for a long time, although no appearance of stringency. The general rate of call loans is 7 per cent. discount, and the market is without perceptible change. Street rates are 10 to 15 per cent. for prime names and 12 to 24 for single name paper.

In mercantile circles there is a growing feeling against banks generally for accommodating Wall street speculators freely on call and at the same time cutting down merchants in their accommodations in the discount line. This action meets with no little censure from merchants, and steps are being taken to remedy the evil.

The Express says: A project is on foot to start a bank with $20,000,000 capital, for the sole purpose of discounting business paper. It is stated that some prominent German capitalists have signified their willingness to subscribe $5,000,000 to the capital stock of such a bank. Some commission houses are to retire from business owing to the fact that their capital does not return sufficient. On the other hand, it is announced that some firms with large means, including Baltimore commission and jobbing houses, are to quit the dry goods business and start the banking business in Wall street.

Sterling, dull but firm at 8⅞@9¼. Gold firmer but quiet, opened at 126¾, touched 127¼ and closed at 127@127⅛. Carrying rates at 5@6¼ per cent.

Governments steady. Coupons '81, 117¾@117⅞; do '62, 115⅝@115¾; do '64, 112⅞@113⅛; do '65, 113⅜@113½; do new 115¾@115⅞; do '67, 115½@115⅝; do '68, 115¼@115½; 10-40s, 107⅛@107¼; Currency 6s, 107⅜@108.

State Bonds firmer on Missouris; rest dull; Missouris, 87¼; old Tennessees, 59¾; new do., 52½; old Virginias, 49; new do., 53¼; old North Carolinas, 50; new do., 37. Special tax 40.

Stocks continue dull in the absence of outside orders, and there is a disposition among the leading speculators to await the meeting of Congress and obtain the drift of legislation on financial affairs before engaging in any large operations. The Treasurer of the new consolidation, the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad Company, has given public notice that the transfer books will be opened to-morrow at the office of the Union Trust Company, this city, for the exchange of stock certificates and for the issuing of consolidation certificates, in pursuance of the terms of consolidation. The market was generally strong in the afternoon, with the chief activity in New York Central, Lake Shore, Northwestern and Pacific Mail. Prices at the close were hardly up to the best rates of the afternoon, and the market was somewhat unsettled, though generally firm.

Five Thirty Prices—Canton, 57½; Cumberland, 28; Western Union Telegraph, 34½; Quicksilver, 13¼; Mariposa, 8; do preferred, 15; Adams Express, 57; Wells & Fargo, 18¾; American, 31¾; United States, 51¾; Pacific Mail, 55; New York City, 181⅜; Erie, 27⅝; do preferred, 41; Hudson, 158¼; Reading, 96½c; Michigan Central, 119¼; Lake Shore, 87⅛; Illinois Central, 137; Pittsburgh, 89; Northwestern, 70¼; do. preferred, 85; Rock Island, 103; St. Paul, 68¾; do. preferred, 83⅜; Wabash, 56; Ft. PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, November 15, 1869.

The very inclement weather, which we have had for some days past, has a tendency to restrict out door business, which at best is not what it should be and nothing to boast of. Our merchants have been looking forward so long for the much expected improvement, that they are becoming discouraged, as the prospects are no better now than they were two months ago. Nothing definite or satisfactory has been received from the Pennsylvania Railroad Company in regard to placing Pittsburgh on an equality with western shippers over that road, and from this it is fair to presume that that corporation does not intend to respond to the very fair and just proposition made by our merchants, and that the expectations indulged in this respect are not likely to be realized.

APPLES—We can report steady and liberal arrivals but with a continued good demand, prices are well sustained, ranging from $2@3,50 per bbl.

APPLE BUTTER—Quoted at 85@90.

BUTTER—Is quiet and unchanged—sales of prime choice Roll at 30@35.

BEANS—$2,50@2,75 per bushel.

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—4½@4¾ cts.

CHESTNUTS—Dull; $4,50@5.

CIDER—Is dull with a supply in excess of the demand; may be quoted at $6 to $8 per bbl.

CRANBERRIES—Quoted at $12@16 per bbl, as to quality and condition.

CARBON OIL—Standard brands 31½@32, in a jobbing way.

CHEESE—Quiet and unchanged, ranging from 18@21, the outside figure for New York Goshen.

DRIED FRUIT—Is quiet and unchanged. Apples, 8@9 cts; Peaches, 9@10 for quarters, and 12@13 for halves.

DRESSED HOGS—Sales at 12@12½.

EGGS—Sales limed at 23@28, and fresh packed at 33@35.

FEATHERS—In better demand and higher, and we now quote at 85@90 to the trade and the usual advance for small lots in store.

FLOUR—Is dull and neglected though without quotable change. Winter wheat flours may be quoted at $5,75@6,25, for fair to choice.

GRAIN—Wheat is quiet—but little offering and not much wanted; $1,18 is still regarded as the ruling price for prime red. Oats quiet and unchanged: 46@47 on wharf and track and 48@50 in store. New corn is still quoted at 70@75, and old at 93@95. Rye is dull and nominal at 90@95—so far as we can learn there is no buyers above 95. Barley is dull and unsettled, a dealer who had some good Washington county spring to sell, informed us that $1 was the best offer he could get, which he declined being unwilling to accept less than $1,15.

HAY—Sales at Allegheny market at $15@22 per ton.

HUSKS—Sales at 3 cents per pound.

HOMINY—Sales at $6,00@6,50 per bbl.

LIME—Sales of Cleveland white lime at $2@2,25 per bbl.

LARD OIL—Sales of extra No. 1, at $1,38@1,43, and No. 2, at $1,05@1,08.

POULTRY—Sales of dressed chickens at 12@15 cts. per pound, and dressed turkeys at 16@18. Live chickens at 45@50 cts per pair, by the coop.

PROVISIONS—Market quiet and prices nominal—old stock almost exhausted.

SEEDS—Nothing doing in either clover or Timothy seeds. Sales of flaxseed at $2,40, at which figure it is wanted.

SALT—Allegheny river brands quoted at $2 for small lots in store.

STRAW—Sales at $12@15 per ton.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, November 15, 1869.

The heaviest part of the oil business is now being conducted by the newspapers, the "bull" and "bear" movement being the topic of discussion, and it looks as though it would be continued until one side or the other is annihilated—on paper. In the meantime the trade generally is invited to take a back seat, and there remain until the conflict is over, and it appears that operators, pretty generally, have accepted the invitation, as there has been no business deserving of the name for two or three days.

Compared with Saturday the market presents no new characteristics worthy of special notice; the feeling seemed to be somewhat easier to-day, and dealers generally reported business very dull, and, if anything, prices were a shade lower than on Saturday.

CRUDE.

No sales. Spot is still quoted at 17, with a settlement of contract reported on that basis. Seller November, 16¾; seller this year 16½; buyer this year, 17@17¼.

ALLEGHENY CATTLE MARKET

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, November 15, 1869.

CATTLE.

The supply of cattle on sale to-day was comparatively light, about 950, against 1,350 last week, and with an improved demand and several droves taken on New York account, the market was stronger than it has been for several weeks, and for all grades prices ruled higher. There was an unusually large number of good cattle on sale to-day, which is usually the case on market day preceding thanksgiving, and they were all sold at an advance over last week's prices, and commoner grades also, were held with more tinacity and in many instances brought 20 to 25 per cent. more than the same grade of stock sold for last week.

Of the good cattle on sale to-day, Gillet & Co took several droves for New York, including one car load of extra steers, averaging 1,415 pounds, at 8 cents. Chas. Welde (butcher) also bought 10 head of extra cattle at an average of about 8 cents, including one very fine heifer, weighing 1,400. He also bought a calf two months old, weighing 640 lbs, at 10 cents, live weight. This being the case Mr. Welde's patrons will have some nice meat this week, though this is nothing new as he never has any other kind on his stall. Mr. Welde buys the best cattle in market, and we know this to be a fact by personal observation. All of the cattle above referred to were sold by S. Marks & Bro.

Moreland & Wells sold 15 head of steers from Jefferson county, Ohio, to L Rothchilds & Co, at 5.

Sheitmantle & Stouffer sold 36 head Butler county steers and heifers at 4@6¼.

Smith & Blue sold 42 head Indiana cows, steers and heifers at 4½@6¼.

M. Fiinner sold 29 head common Butler county stock at 3½@4.

F. Kraus sold 28 head common stock at 4@4½.

L. & J. Shamberg 60 head from Chicago at 4¾@6¾; 42 head from Washington county at 6@7.

Sam Lowenstein sold 50 head Washington county steers at 5¼@6⅛.

L. Rothchilds & Zeigler sold 23 head Chicago steers at 5½@6,90; 41 head from Ohio at 4½@6¼.

Peter Hartman sold 43 head Green county, Pa. stock at 5¾@6¾.

John McAllister sold 5 head bulls at 3@4.

Katz & Keefer sold 30 head Chicago stock at 5@6¼.

Kraus & Haas sold 78 head from Washington county and Chicago at 5@6½.

Jacob Needy 35 head of Ohio steers at 5½@7.

M. Verner sold 24 head Washington county stock at 5,60@6,80; 25 from Green county at 5¾@6¾.

Heazleton & Blackstock 80 head mixed stock at 4½@6½.

Greenwald & Kahn 100 head of mixed stock at 4@7¾.

S. Marks & Bro. sold 78 head; wholesaled 17 head to Gillett & Co. extra at 8, averaging about 1,400; also 10 head to C Welde at 8; one extra calf two months old weighing 640 pounds at 10 cts., live weight.

Nicholas Carr sold 25 mixed stock at 5@6.

Jas. McAllister sold 15 head Penn'a. scalawags at 4½@4¾.

Holmes, Lafferty & Co. sold 18 to Gillett & Co. at 6¾; retailed balance at 4¼@6.

Trautman & Lobman sold 63 head from Washington county at 5½@7.

Hedges & Taylor sold 18 head at an average of about 5¼.

Emerick & Co. 15 head mixed stock; 3 fresh cows at $70 per head; 9 head mixed stock at 4@4¾.

SHEEP AND LAMBS.

The supply of sheep on sale was somewhat larger than that of last week, and upon the whole the quality was much better than it has been for several weeks. There was some very fine sheep in market to-day, averaging from 100 to 118 lbs, and, as might be expected, they brought fancy prices, 5½@5½ cts. The whole number on sale to-day was about 2,500 head, and for the common grades the market was dull, and it looked at 10 o'clock as if there would be a number left over unsold. Good to prime sheep may be quoted at $3,50@4,50 per head, and extra to fancy at $5@5½. Lambs may be quoted at $1,00@3,50 per head.

Frank Kraus sold 60 head sheep at $1,65 per head.

Adam Eckert sold 130; wholesaled 10 head averaging 50 lbs at $1,45; and 3 averaging 80 lbs at $2,80.

Jacob Emmeil sold 275 head of mixed sheep at $1,25@3,50.

John Walters sold 100 head mixed sheep at $1,25@3,50.

Jas. Shaw sold 250 head from Mercer Co. at $1,25@3.

Wm. Young sold 120 head sheep and lambs, at an average of $1,75.

P. Bannon sold 75 sheep for Patridge, at $2,75 per head.

J. F. Alburn sold 175 sheep from Beaver Co., at $1,90@3,50.

D. B. Taylor sold 46 head of sheep averaging about 79 lbs at $2,12½.

C. Beerer sold 150.

W. Neely sold 164 sheep and lambs, at $2@3,75.

C. H. Moulton had 46; held at $3—unsold.

Kauffman sold 200 scalawags—expected to average $1,25 per head.

J. F. Neely sold 270 head; sold 20 head extra to Tesh averaging 118 lbs at 5½; retailed balance at $1,50@3,75.

Chas. Walker 81 head scalawag sheep to Kimberlin at $1,40.

Dennis Haggerty 90 head; sold at an average of about $2.

John Fairley 155 sheep and lambs, at $4½@5½.

HOGS.

Market steady and moderately active though unchanged—the demand is mainly local, being confined to supplying immediate wants of butchers. We quote in a retail way at $10@11,50 per cwt gross, for fair to prime heavy averages.

Robt. Elliott from Jefferson Co. Ohio, sold 47 hogs to Byers & Co. at 10.

A. Horner sold 49 from Belmont Co. Ohio to Emerick & Co. at 10.

Jacob Needy sold a small drove at $10,40.

RIVER NEWS.

The river remains unchanged at this point, with two feet in the channel by the Monongahela marks. Weather yesterday was cloudy and cold, and the prospects for a rise were not as favorable as on Saturday or Sunday as it thawed little or none.

There has been no arrivals since the date of our last report.

The Belle departed for Parkersburg at noon with all she could take on the water. Capt. John Richey has assumed command of the Belle, Capt. Sholes taking charge of the office.

Capt. Wash Kerr, recently of the Kenton, was expected to arrive here yesterday afternoon, with a view of purchasing the Sallie.

The new J. N. McCullough, it is expected, will be completed about Christmas. She is beginning to look like a steamboat, and will, doubtless in many respects be a better boat than the old one.

The Glendale for St. Louis and Messenger for New Orleans, will leave on the first water; also, the Mollie Ebert for Cincinnati.

—Red River and New Orleans pilots now get, or got recently, rather good wages—$750 per month.

—The new Arkansas packet Regulator, is reported hard aground at Lewisport. The Grand Era is reported aground at French Island.

—Captain W. T. Whitfield, who was here a short time since in search of a suitable boat for Trinity River, has bought the Cleona at New Orleans for that trade, for $8,500.

—The suit of the owners of the Argonaut No. 2 vs. the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, for $3,000 damages sustained by a collision with the railroad bridge at Nashville, in the Court of Common Pleas in that city, has been postponed until February next.

—The Evansville Journal says that the citizens of Smithland, on Sunday last, as an act of devotion, turned out en masse and removed a dangerous snag from the head of the chute above that town, and steamboats drawing three and a half feet can pass up that side now without danger or difficulty.

—A regular Cincinnati and New Orleans line for the coming season, is a fixed thing, with the terms and conditions all down in black and white, and duly agreed to by the boats composing the line. The boats are the Alaska, Swallow, J. H. Groesbeck, Silver Spray, Belle Vernon, Leonidas and Emma No. 3.

—The Louisville Courier says: From Captain Lockhart, Superintendent of the Canal, we learn that General Weitzel's dam, contrary to the expectations of many of our boatmen, is beneficial, and that there is at present four inches more water in the canal at this stage of water than before the constrction of the dam.

We also clip the following from the same paper: Capt. Fink Varble, the falls pilots, yesterday notified the Bridge Company that the two flatboats now anchored between the piers of the chute must be removed, so as to admit in the passage of flats and barges. We understand that the company declined on the ground that the removal of the boats would greatly retard the work upon the bridge.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SEAWEED TONIC AND MANDRAKE PILLS will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the liver and put it to work; then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens into the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivaled success in the treatment of pulmonary Consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pill, must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care,) that will unlock the gall bladder and start the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Liver complaint is one of the most prominent causes of Consumption.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, and the alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure Consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abscesses, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs are a mass of inflammation and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Dr. Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood; then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure Consumption.

When there is no lung disease and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient, without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all bilious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 225 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparation with remarkable success. Full directions accompany each bottle, making it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal Office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. He is also professionally at No. 32 Bond street, New York, every other Tuesday, and at No. 35 Hanover street, Boston, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the price is $5. Office hours at each city from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1,50 per bottle, or $7,50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists. my19:151-d&F

SECURITY AND COMFORT for the traveling community.

J. B. HARRIS

Safety Fire Jacket, Car Heater and MODERATOR.

For Smoke and Hot Air Flues, dispensing the use of stoves and fires in or about the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature that may be desired without the possibility of ever setting car or cars on fire. [illegible] Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a safety Jacket, which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in the position and purpose for which it is intended.

It is a sure protection from accidents by fire originating from defective flues or where the pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto. I am now ready to apply my invention to all dwellings, factories, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c. Wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated and security desired, it will be found in this. The manufacture or use of the above invention. Territorial rights to such as may wish to engage in selling privileges either by County or State.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

THE GAZETTE is furnished in the city for six days of the week for 15 cents per week; by mail, $8 per annum: 3 mos., $2.

Discharged.—C. E. Wilson, who was arrested at the Union Depot, Sunday, a notice of which we published yesterday, was discharged by the Mayor yesterday morning.

Threats.—Jas. Obrien was before Alderman Taylor yesterday morning for threatening to take the life of Patrick Quinn. He will have a hearing on Wednesday.

We have reasons for bespeaking attention to one of the "Wants" advertised to-day. $3,000 are needed for a new business that only awaits this needed capital to make it at once productive and very profitable. A large sale is already assured.

Passenger Railway Meeting.—Last evening the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Citizen's and People's Passenger Railway was held, at which Messrs. James Verner, J. H. Wright, Alexander Speers, J. H. Jones and Richard Hays were elected Directors for the ensuing year.

Attention is Called to the advertisement headed "Au Bon Marche" in this morning's GAZETTE. The ladies are interested, as there will be an "opening" of a new and extensive stock of all the latest styles of millinery goods, to which we shall make extended reference to-morrow.

Organ Concert.—An exhibition of the new organ erected in the Lutheran Church, Seventh avenue, will be given this evening. The builder, Mr. Knauff, and C. C. Mellor will preside at the organ. In addition to the organ exhibition, some of our best vocal talent will be present to assist. Tickets can be obtained free of charge at Wattles & Sheaffer's, Fifth avenue, and Weyman & Bros., Smithfield street, and at the church.

About to Move.—Yesterday Alderman Koenig issued a warrant for the arrest of George Kaiser, charged with fraud, on oath of N. Kirsch. The prosecutor alleges the defendant is proprietor of a news stand on Ohio street, Allegheny; he is indebted to him seven dollars and a half; that he is attempting to defraud him of the same by selling out his stock and making preparations to remove to to Ohio.

The Western University.

The classes in the Collegiate and Scientific departments of this Institution are unusually large, and in all respects it never was more prosperous. The new department of Engineering has a large class. Students desirous of a thorough extended Collegiate course can here enjoy excellent advantages. The Faculty consists of twelve Professors. The present term commences the 14th inst.

The First of the Season.

The first invoice of the new crop of molasses has just been received and is advertised for sale by the house of John S. Dilworth & Co., 130 and 132 Second avenue.

If we are not mistaken this shipment is a part of the crop raised by Mr. Dilworth on his own Louisiana plantation, and is a noteworthy sign that we are beginning to raise our own sugar and molasses, and of the far reaching enterprise of our merchants.

Burglary.

Yesterday morning about three o'clock the residence of Mr. Thomas Goodale Western avenue, Allegheny, was entered, and a lot of wearing apparel, including a silk dress, velvet sack, silver spoons, and several coats, carried off. The thieves removed a sash at the side of a hall door at the rear of the house, thrust a hand through the aperture, slipped the bolt back, and thus effected an entrance. A domestic in the family heard the noise, but thought nothing of it and gave no alarm.

A Good Joke on a Soldier.

A young man from the Arsenal came to the city on business, and, among other things requiring attention, was an aching tooth, and so repaired to the office of Dr. G. W. Spencer, No. 255 Penn street, and with apparent skepticism inquired if this troublesome member could be taken out without pain or injurious effects upon himself. Having received a satisfactory answer, the Laughing Gas was administered and the tooth extracted in a moment or two, after which he raised up in the chair and said, "Well, Doctor, that gas has no effect on me; I am sorry," and threw himself back in the chair to show what a man who had seen service could do, and with determination, said: "I will have it out anyhow. I have been a soldier; certainly I can bear that." The Doctor informed him he could do no more with the tooth. At this the young man concluded as there was blood in his mouth, there had been a trial made, and thrust his tongue in the cavity to see what had been done, and to his delight and astonishment, the tooth was gone.

Petroleum Items.

The Titusville Herald of Monday says a new fifteen barrel well was struck on the Toles farm, between Lower Cherry run and the Allegheny river, a few days ago.

The well owned by Emery Bros., on the Walter Scott Oil Company's tract, Upper Cherry run, is reported to be producing from 160 to 200 barrels daily.

The old Harmonial well No. 9 on the Armstrong farm, Pleasantville, which was drilled in to the sixth sand rock about a year ago, and which produced a small quantity of green oil for some time was recently drilled deeper and torpedoed. It is now yielding ten barrels of green oil daily. The success which has attended the late operations on this well proves conclusively that a green oil belt underlies the Pleasantville black oil producing rock. This well is located about a mile north of the large green oil well on the Independent tract, and is of much importance, as it indicates the course taken by the green oil.

Messrs Hukill, Mitchell and Davis struck a new twenty-five brrrel well on the Shaw Farm, near Lower Cherry run, last week.

At Parker's Landing the production is steadily increasing, and new strikes are being made at the rate of two or three per week. About a week ago a new fifty barrel well was struck on the upper island by Messrs. Shannon & Allen. A few days previous the Enterprise well No. 2 was struck. This well commenced to produce at the rate of twenty-five barrels daily, but the yield has since increased, and is now about sixty barrels per day.

On Saturday last two new wells were struck on Fisher Brothers farm, formerly the Tyrrel farm. One of them is producing twenty barrels and the other fifteen barrels daily.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—A large and select audience assembled at the Opera House last evening to welcome Lucille Western, who has long been a favorite with the lovers of the drama in this city. "East Lynne" was presented, Miss Western appearing in the roles of Lady Isabel and Madame Vine, and Mr. J. A. Herne, a talented young actor, in the character of Francis Levison. The piece was well put on the stage, and the several members of the stock company in the cast sustained their respective roles admirably. The piece will be repeated this evening, when a large audience may be anticipated.

PITTSBURGH THEATRE.—The return of James Taylor, who is universally popular with the patrons of the "Old Drury," in connection with the Mace Combination, as might have been expected, attracted a large audience to that institution last evening.

MINSTRELS.—Allen, Pettengill, Delehanty & Hengler's Sensation Minstrels will give two of their grand and inimitable entertainments at the Academy of Music on Thursday (Thanksgiving day), afternoon and evening.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—Henry Vincent will deliver his lecture entitled "Queen Elizabeth of England," under the auspices of the Mercantile Library Association, at the Academy of Music, Wednesday evening, the 17th inst. No reserved seats, but they will doubtless all be taken.

CONCERT.—The celebrated Allegheny Quartette club will give a grand concert at Excelsior Hall, Allegheny, Wednesday evening, the 17th inst., for the benefit of Emmanuel Church, Allegheny. Tickets for sale at the music stores.

FAIR.—The attendance at St. Bridgets fair, now being held at St. Bridgets church, Eleventh ward, continues to increase, and quite a lively interest is manifested in the voting on the several articles to be disposed of.

The Graveyard Question.

A meeting of the lot holders of the Eleventh Ward Methodist Graveyard, about which so much has been said and written during the past year, was held at the Second Ward School House, yesterday, Monday evening, Nov. 16th, 1869.

The meeting was organized by calling Mr. Robert King to the chair, Mr. James McKean officiating as Secretary.

The President, on taking the chair, stated that the meeting had been called for the purpose of hearing the report of the Committee appointed to negotiate with the Commissioners for a compromise of the difficulty.

Capt. Andrew Miller, Chairman of the committee, presented a verbal report, setting forth the result of the interview with the commissioners. He said that since the last meeting of the lot owners the committee had an interview with two of the commissioners. The propositions submitted to the lot owners from the commissioners had been agreed upon as the basis of a compromise. He in company with one of the commissioners had visited the office of Mr. White, attorney for the commissioners, for the purpose of having the agreement put in writing, and at the suggestion of Mr. White the commissioner backed down from the agreement, so that the matter now stands as it was before the proposition to compromise.

Mr. White said he held that the reputed lot owners had no title to the ground, and that they would find the Supreme Court would sustain him.

The commissioners had submitted several other propositions, but they were so mean that he had told them he would not offer them to the meeting of lot holders.

As the meeting desired to hear it, he stated one proposition, which was as follows: They propose that each lot owner purchase a lot in some other burying ground, and remove all their dead; that the commissioners would pay the actual cost of moving the bodies, provided the cost of any single lot did not come to more than $20; and after the dead are all removed and the ground cleared off, then the commissioners would purchase the lots from the owners at the original cost price of $10 each. The proposition was in writing, and had been drawn up by the same individual who procured the passage of the act for the vacation of the burial ground, and was like the act, a trap to catch the unsuspecting.

The only course now left for the lot owners was to prosecute the matter to the end. He had no doubts whatever of the result, and if the lot owners were successful they could fence in the ground and use it as a burying ground, and by replanting shrubbery restore it to its condition before it had been desecrated by the hands of the Commissioners.

Mr. Floyd thought it would be necessary to erect a watch house and place a watchman in it if they desired to protect it.

At the suggestion of Mr. Miller, the Secretary read the opinion of the Court in the application for a preliminary injunction to restrain the Commissioners from proceeding further with the work of removing the bodies.

The report was received.

Mr. Floyd said that he was glad to see that the Committee was with him. He had never agreed to a compromise with the Commissioners. He had said from the first that he would be satisfied with nothing save the return of the bodies that had been removed by the Commissioners, and the restoration of the ground to as near what it formerly was as could be done.

Mr. Floyd submitted the following:

Resolved, That we earnestly request the Commissioners of Liberty and Smithfield street station and the Centenary Board to bring back the corses that they have removed, and bury them as near as possible in the grave they once paid for, and place the grave marks to the same; and we pledge ourselves to stand an assessment of one thousand dollars to defray the expenses of putting a fence around the same, so that "Gabrial's trump" shall be the first to disturb them.

The resolution was unanimously adopted.

The Committee, on motion of Mr. Floyd, were continued, and requested to have the counsel apply to the Court for the appointment of a commissioner or commissioners to take charge of the burying ground until the matter was definitely settled.

The meeting then adjourned.

G. A. R. Lecture.

The second lecture of the course before the Grand Army of the Republic will be delivered this evening at the Academy of Music by Justin McCarthy, Esq., late editor of the London Morning Star. The subject selected by Mr. McCarthy, "Lord Byron," is one of universal interest, and it will doubtless be handled in an able and instructive manner. There is perhaps no man more competent to talk to an audience, of England's gifted bard than Mr. McCarthy. The house will doubtless be filled to overflowing, as the lecturer's reputation, independent of the interesting subject of the lecture, should be sufficient to fill the largest halls in the country. There will be no reserved seats, nor is there likely to be any empty ones.

MUSICAL.

The First Grand Concert of the Pittsburgh Cantata Society Under the Leadership of Prof. Clement Tetedoux.

Several months ago was organized in this city, after a plan which largely prevails in the refined and cultivated circles of the Old Continent, a society of our leading and most conspicuous amateur vocalists. None were encouraged to join who had not impressed by public ordeal, their claims on the community as singers of no ordinary ability, and out of a population of several hundred thousand was selected the valuable material, which composes and makes up the Cantata Society. Such a choral organization of members who are keen to perfect themselves in the finest of Divine Arts, is sure to meet with hearty encouragement from a people who are willing to accord to true talent and ability fitting acknowledgment. It was, therefore, with no feeling of wonder or surprise that we visited the Academy last evening and found one of the largest, most fashionable and brilliant audiences ever assembled together in Pittsburgh, to greet the members of the Cantata Society on the occasion of their first public concert. Those who attended faithfully and fully represented that class of people who are ever devoted to the interests and welfare of home talent, and the absence of the weak-minded and gaudy butter flies of fashion, who might not discern the finest gem of music from the coarsest vulgarism of the Italian opera, was a matter of congratulation among all true lovers of art. The audience was just such as the Society must have wished for; keen to appreciate all that was good, willing to award praise where praise was due, and capable of passing judgment on the merits of a clever rendition or difficult interpretation.

The programme was heavy, but is was framed in anticipation of the character of the audience expected. If any departed dissatisfied with the rich musical feast offered, let him conceal within himself the fact, for no ear attuned to correct harmony and perfect vocalization could have failed to have brought to the owner, a keen realization of the grandeur of the performances. It is much easier to criticise than to execute. In the "Messe Solennelle," Gounod, there is grand study. Few choirs in the leading Cathedrals of the county, where singers are paid heavy salaries, would attempt to produce it and afterwards say that they had fully communed with the spirit of the author and faithfully interpreted his creation. Here we had three score of talented amateurs who rendered the exquisite creation in a manner which baffled the most expert of our professional critics to discover a flaw or defect in the interpretation. Perhaps to Protestants, who made up the large majority of the audience, the Mass appeared too solid with too much design for effect; but with Catholics who were familiar with church music—familiar with the transitory feelings the musical Mass contains, the efforts arose high in their estimation. Accustomed to the very highest order of music, acquainted with and realizing the depth of piety sought and the direct appeal to the heart made, they could not well feel that they were outside the sanctuary where was celebrated the grandest office of their Church. It will be remembered that the Mass commemorates the sufferings, passion, glories and death of Christ. It opens with an humble supplication to the Lord to have mercy on sinners. Kyrie Eleism was chanted with a depth of feeling which appealed to all hearts present and produced a very decided effect. It was in this execution that Mrs. C. C. Mellor, who, we say without favor or without fear of contradiction, is one of America's most gifted daughters, first displayed her rare artistic abilities as a soprano of unqualified vocalistic power. Her voice is as sweet as Parepa's; as full of power as the Richings, and as clear toned and pure as that of a Lind or Piccolimini. It is a pity that she has not wider sphere. If ambitious, if not settled in life, Mrs. Mellor would shine in the galaxy of American stars second to none; but she is satisfied in the meed of admiration awarded and the pleasure derived from appearing to advantage on such an occasion as was the concert of last night at the Opera.

"Credo in unum Deum, Patrem, omnipotentem, facto rem coeli et terrae visibilium omnium et invisibilium, etc," was rendered with marked ability and produced a profound effect. When the grand climax of the execution was reached, "et incarnatus est de spiritu sancto, ex Maria Virgine, et homo factus est," the audience seemed to take in the solemnity of the words rendered, as the rich, liquid melodies of Mrs. Mellor, soprano, Mr. Paul Zimmerman, tenor, and Mr. W. B. Edwards, bass, mingled and blended together. The effect was magical, and arose from not only a clear conception of the interpreters, but likewise a seldom met with appreciation of the solemnity of the passage on the part of the audience. The offeratory, one of the most solemn parts of the mass, was entrusted to the strong orchestra under the leadership of Prof. George Teorge. It was an instrumental performance of surpassing beauty and effect.

The Canon of the Mass, so called because of its meaning an important rule or formula, was next introduced by the recitation of the concluding part of the service, "Sanctus, Sanctus, Sanctus, Dominus Deus Sabaoth, pleni sunt coeli et terra gloria tua. Hosanna in excelsis! Benedictus qui venit in nomine Domini. Hosanna in excelsis!" etc. Mr. Breed and Mrs. Miller sustained the important parts aided by the magnificent chorus.

Next came the benediction, after which followed the solemn "Agnus Dei," a part in which the performers showed clearly that they entered fully into the ideas of the author, and partook of the religious feelings intended to be portrayed in the execution. The concluding prayers were chanted in admirable manner and left an impress on the audience of the superiority of the powers of those figuring in the execution of the programme.

Gipsey Life, a spirited composition, was next rendered in fine style by the Society. This contribution to musical literature was lately added by Fanny Raymond Ritter, and its interpretation made deep impress on the audience.

Fair Ellen, a historic cantata, one that never before has been presented to an American audience, was performed in admirable manner. Mr. J. J. Benitz, an artist who has few superiors in the vocal world in the possession of a richer, fuller or deeper bass voice, sustained the character of Lord Edward, while Mrs. C. C. Mellor sang Ellen's part in elegant manner. A rapturous encore was given this performance, but owing to the lateness of the hour no response was made.

Too much credit cannot be awarded Mrs. Mellor, soprano, Mr. Zimmerman, tenor, Mr. W. B. Edwards and Mr. Benitz, bassos, for the clever manner in which they performed their allotted parts, and it is a pity that the three score other good voices were all lost in choruses.

We hope that the concert will soon be repeated with a lighter programme. Give each of the corps a fair chance, and our word for it, the Cantata Society will find great and enduring popularity with our intellectual public. To Prof. Tetedoux, above all others, let the credit of the success of last evening's entertainment be awarded. Let him have the thanks of the community for his exertions in elevating music to its proper estimate, and for zealousness in promoting in our midst the fine art of music.

Sacred Concert.

Trinity Church Choir, assisted by some of the first musical talent in the city, expect to give a concert in the elegant new chapel, on Wednesday evening, the 24th. With the organ (which has been removed from the old church to the new chapel) and a fine chorus of upwards of thirty picked voices, we doubt not a musical treat is in store for those who wish to enjoy that species of music, which is produced only by the majestic tones of the organ blending with the human voice. We bespeak a large audience. Tickets for sale at Mellor & Hoene's music store, Fifth avenue.

LADIES FURS.

Prices 15 to 25 Per Cent. Less Than any House in the City—The House of Wm. Fleming & Co., 139 Wood Street.

It is no common thing for our people to express pride over our great iron and glass works, our levitahan workshops and mammoth factories, and of late we have found something else to be proud of in the way of a magnificent first class fur emporium which in point of excellence, elegance and variety of its stock, and general appointments, leads every similar house of the character in Pennsylvania, and has few equals in this country. The reader need not be told that we refer to the mammoth establishment of William Fleming & Co., No. 139 Wood street, a point of great attraction to the ladies, as well as wholesale customers who come from abroad. Year after year this old representative house keep pace with the times, and to-day finds itself in that commanding position in the trade which tact, enterprise and capital well exerted and judiciously used warrant. It is a leader in the fur trade and monopolizes the greater portion of that branch of business. There are this firm have made such headway. The senior member of the house, Mr. William Fleming, knows the fur trade as well as the educated man knows the alphabet, and keeps constant surveillance on the market. He buys closely and carefully, and is alwas on hand to secure bargains in the fluctuation of the markets in the East, and, using CASH EXCLUSIVELY in his purchases, he is prepared to afford the customers of his firm unequaled advantages. The house deals in no common or inferior goods, but to the contrary, keep the best lines from the richest and most costly to the cheapest and most humble. Throughout the various departments, the goods are marked down at from fifteen to twenty per cent. less than can other dealers afford to sell them. In all their dealings Messrs. Fleming & Co. use the utmost care and candor, making their patrons feel secure that while they save money in purchasing there, they at the same time get as good goods as they could obtain by purchasing elsewhere, and in most cases much superior and better articles. The departments are in the keeping of polite, courteous and attentive salesmen, who have the same welcome to extend visitors who merely call to examine the goods as to those who call to purchase. Everything known to the fur trade for ladies', misses' and gentlemen's wear, made of the most desirable furs in the most fashionable styles, will be found in the stock, and we earnestly and heartily commend this firm to the patronage of our readers.

Signs of Disease.

But few persons pass any considerable time of life without experiencing some of the aches, pains, weaknesses, sicknesses, etc., which are the monitors of existing disease.

These monitors should never be passed over lightly, nor considered slightly, as their neglect is the great cause of so many lingering sicknesses.

Many of the chronic diseases of to-day might have been arrested in their incipient stages, and speedy cures long since obtained, had timely application been made to a conscientious physician of learning, of judgment, and of skill in treatment.

The slightest feeling of distress is positive evidence of existing disease, and the sooner it is removed the better. By thus nipping disease when these signs first appear, hundreds of lingering cases may be avioded and much suffering prevented.

It is not enough, however, for the physician to know the anatomy of the human body; the pathology of disease, and the nature and properties of his medicines.

He must know how to interpret these signs of disease, that he may anticipate their action.

He must know how to determine the nature of the disease, that he may select the appropriate remedy with which to abbreviate its course.

He must know how to determine the extent of the disease, that he may prescribe the remedy in sufficient strength to cut short its progress.

He must know how to estimate the strength and endurance of the patient, that he may calculate the prospects of a cure.

These are some of the advantages we propose to gain by a scientific examinal tion of the urine.

The facts which the optical appearance, chemical analysis, and microscopic observations reveal to the physician, compensate more than a hundred fold for the time required to make the examination.

They throw such a flood of light upon the nature of the disease, and give such demonstrative evidence of the extent, that both the kind and degree may often be definitely determined by an examination of the urine alone, and whatever the disease, seldom fails in furnishing us with the clue to the principles upon which it is to be treated.

No one should disregard the slightest feeling of indisposition, no more than the severest suffering, but repair at once to a physician, whose whole time and attention is devoted to the discovery of the best mode of relieving the most afflicted, in the shortest time, and at the least possible expense.

PACIFIC RAILWAY GOLD LOAN.

Messrs. DABNEY, MORGAN & CO., 53 Exchange Place, and M. K. JESSUP & CO., 12 Pine Street, N. Y., offer for sale the Bonds of the Kansas Pacific Railway. These Bonds pay seven per cent. in Gold; have thirty years to run; are Free from Government Taxation; are secured by a Land Grant of Three Million Acres of the Finest Lands in Kansas and Colorado. In addition to this special grant the Company also owns Three Millions of Acres in Kansas, which are being rapidly sold to develop the country and improve the road. They are first mortgage upon the extension of the road from Sheridan, Kansas, to Denver, Colorado. The road in operation, 437 miles long, upon which it is also a mortgage, NOW EARNS MORE THAN ENOUGH NET INCOME TO PAY THE INTEREST UPON THE NEW LOAN. There is no better security in the market—this being in some respects better than Government Securities. PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST PAYABLE IN GOLD, Price 96, and accrued interest, in Currency. Pamphlets, Maps and Circulars furnished on applications.

We have a full supply of the above Bonds on hand and for sale, and we take pleasure in recommending them as a very reliable and perfectly safe investment.

INSURANCE.

CONTINENTAL Fire Insurance Company,

No. 102 BROADWAY, N. Y.

CASH CAPITAL IS .... $ 500,000 00
SURPLUS OF ASSETS (July 1, 1869,) IS 1,752,030 75
Making its total Cash Assets $2,252,030 75

Three-quarters of the profits are divided, in July of each year to its customers in scrip, bearing interest at six per cent. per annum, until redeemed in cash. One-quarter is divided to its stockholders.

By this system the customers of the Company obtain their insurance at about what it costs the company to protect them, and under no circumstances are they liable for the losses.

NOTE.—The largest amount of "Net Surplus over Liabilities, Reinsurance and Capital," as shown by the "Official Returns," is that of the CONTINENTAL INSURANCE COMPANY.

The Directors of the Company have ordered the following dividends:

1st. A semi annual cash dividend of seven (7) per cent., payable to the stockholders forthwith.

2d. A cash dividend for the redemption of the scrip of 1863, with 6 per cent. interest thereon, payable August 10th.

3d. An interest dividend has been declared on outstanding scrip of '64, '65, '66, '67 and '68, payable in cash September 20th.

4th. A scrip dividend of fifty (50) per cent. on earned premiums of customers entitled to participate in the profits of the Company is payable forthwith at the office of the Company, No. 167 Wood street, Bank of Commerce Building.

The Company insures against loss by Fire on Buildings, Merchandize, Furniture, Manufactories, except of the more perilous kinds, Farm Property and other insurable interests at reasonable rates of premium. For additional information with respect to system, plan, rates, &c. Call on or address
